DEFENDANT WINS

In Case of Hammond vs. Wheelock—Suit Against Boxboro

A verdict for the defendant was reported in the case of E. G. Hammond vs. Howard Wheelock, both of Groton, at the opening of superior court this morning.

which the town of Pepperell sues the town of Boxboro for expenses incurred while taking care of a pauper who has a legal settlement in the latter town. It is claimed by the plaintiff that Estella Palmer, sometimes known as Estella Hayward, became a pauper while a resident of Pepperell. The officers of the latter town furnished her relief as a pauper from April 1, 1911 to November 27, 1911 and also paid expenses for nursing. It is claimed that the said Estella Palmer has not a legal settlement in the town of Pepperell but has in the town of Boxboro and that the overseers of the poor of Pepperell have notified the overseers of Boxboro that Estella Palmer was supported as a pauper at the expense and charge of said town of Pepperell and have demanded said expenses so incurred of the defendant but the latter have failed to pay any part of the sum spent by the plaintiff. F. J. Stewart for the defendant. The case was given to the jury early this afternoon.

D. J. MURPHY FOR MAYOR DARING CASE

OF SMUGGLING

Two Auto Loads of Chinese Passed Through Lowell at 1 A. M.—Discovered by Officer Sullivan—Now Chased by U.S. Officers

One of the most daring, as well as the most successful, cases of smuggling Chinese laborers into this country which the Canadian border has ever seen was discovered early this morning by the local police when two large automobiles, seemingly equipped for this very purpose, stopped at Merrimack square to inquire the shortest route to Salem via Reading.

CITY TO PURCHASE PARK

Council Voted $33,000 for Land in West Centralville—Several Claims for Injuries Received

At a regular meeting of the municipal council this morning it was voted to borrow $10,000 for the maintenance of the charity department for the balance of the year, and an order for a loan of $32,000 for the purchase of the proposed park in West Centralville was also passed. Several claims for personal injuries were received and a hearing was set for Monday evening.

RESINOL STOPS SKIN TORMENTS

How This Wonderful Ointment Ends Itching and Heals Skin Eruptions. The soothing, healing medication in Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap penetrates every tiny pore of the skin, clears it of all impurities, and stops itching instantly. Resinol positively speeds healing eczema, rashes, ringworm, and other eruptions, and clears away disfiguring pimples and blackheads, when other treatments prove worse than useless.

Resinol is not an experiment. It is a doctor's prescription which proved so wonderfully successful for skin troubles that it has been used by other doctors all over the country for 15 years. No other treatment for the skin now before the public can show such a record of professional approval. Every drugist sells Resinol Ointment (50c and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c), but for trial size, feel free to write to Dept. 20-14, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Look for the line package and avoid "substitutes."

Another city election has come and gone, leaving behind a few changes in the personnel of our city government. That the voters would have a change was demonstrated at the polls when the mayor and commissioner who have served two years and who were up for re-election were completely snowed under. Dennis J. Murphy was elected mayor by the sweeping majority of 2401 and Commissioner Andrew H. Barrett finished low man in a field of four, receiving 2302 votes less than was given him two years ago.

The mayoralty vote was as follows: Murphy, 7890; O'Donnell, 5408. Two years ago O'Donnell polled 7302 votes as against 6342 for his opponent, Col. Percy Parker.

Charles J. Morse feels justly proud of the magnificent support accorded him, receiving 1951 votes more than the winner of second place, Col. Carmichael. Mr. Duncan polled 6152 votes and Mr. Barrett 5124. It was Col. Carmichael who broke the fusion slate and defeated Mr. Duncan.

The vote for the four commissioners elected two years ago was as follows: Lawrence Cummings, 5461; Andrew H. Barrett, 5124; James H. Donnelly, 6359; George H. Brown, 6331. For school committee two years ago, Edmund J. Simpson received 8318 votes, he being the only candidate at that time to be on the ballot yesterday and his vote yesterday exceeded his vote of two years ago by nearly 2000.

To a great many the mayor's defeat was not as great a surprise as that of Commissioner Barrett. For several days before the election the voter had to be pretty optimistic to see the O'Donnell end of it, while only in a few places did one hear anything that sounded like the downfall of Barrett. Both the mayor and Mr. Barrett put up strenuous campaigns. Mr. Barrett was not attacked as bitterly and maliciously as was the mayor, but Barrett went back at his critics with a vengeance that made them wince, while the mayor seemed disposed to be very easy with them. He seemed to feel that they did not know what they were talking about and because of that fact he was willing to forgive them. Barrett, on the other hand, was aggressive at every point and, as the boys say, captured a good many "votes."

Vote for License

Lowell voters were very emphatic as to their decision to remain in the red column for they registered a very strong "yes" on the license question, the yes vote this year being over 8000, more than last year. The city one year ago, went license 7100 to 2000. Yesterday the city went license by a vote of 7915 to 5231.

SURVEY OF MERRIMACK STRIKER SHOT

Congressman Rogers Again Meets Engineers of War Dept. With Reference to Our Waterway

Congressman Rogers has recently again been in conference with the engineers of the war department at Washington with reference to the progress of the government survey of the Merrimack river now being made under the direction of Col. J. O. Mills, U. S. A. Through the courtesy of the chief of engineers, Congressman Rogers was enabled to examine the report of Col. Mills upon the present status of the work. Col. Mills reports that the field work of the survey is now in progress and that sounding has been completed throughout about nine miles of the river bed down stream from Ward Hill, Haverhill. During the month of October, the last full calendar month for which a report has up to this time been made, the survey was actively prosecuted and about five and one-half miles of the total nine miles above mentioned was completed. It is understood that the findings are to be begun immediately and that they will be continued through such part of the winter as the condition of the ice permits. Either an open river or a river covered with solid ice will not prevent the carrying on of the work, but broken or floating ice, or ice so thick as to impede the passage of boats, but not thick enough to support the work, will necessitate a suspension.

186 WERE KILLED

Year's Accident Record in This State is Ahead of 1912

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—During the year ending Dec. 1, 186 persons were killed and 2223 were injured in 5026 accidents in this state, according to the investigation department of the highway commission, as compared with 142 deaths, 1962 injured and 2441 accidents last year. The percentage of increase during the past year is 31 per cent. in deaths, 48 per cent. in injured and 105 per cent. in accidents.

Head-Work Wins

But mental activity is dependent for its success-making results, upon the way both body and brain cells are fed.

Right feeding isn't a matter of quantity—most persons actually eat too much. But the selection of the right kind of food helps wonderfully to make men and women active and successful.

The fact is, some every-day articles of food are so lacking in certain food values as to make their common use more or less a menace to physical and mental well-being. (Constipation and a run-down physical condition are readily traced to this lack.)

Particularly is this true of food made from white flour, which is robbed of most of the mineral phosphates of the grain when the bran-coat is thrown out in the milling process. Scientists have long recognized this menace to health, and many people are waking up to it.

Grape-Nuts

FOOD made from the whole wheat and malted barley, retains the mineral phosphates, as well as all other nutritive values of the grains. Grape-Nuts, as the cereal part of one's diet, perfectly supplies what white flour foods lack.

Grape-Nuts is long baked, most easily digested, and is ready-to-eat direct from the package—fresh, crisp and delicious.

During Attack Made on Auto Van Loaded With Strikebreakers

LAWRENCE, Dec. 10.—During an attack made by several men, said to be striking Brecken, on an auto van loaded with strikebreakers and detectives, William Townsend, of 34 Manchester street, said to be a striker, was shot by someone either on or near the truck. The bullet passed through Townsend's clothing and grazed the abdomen.

WALSH BALKS GOV. FOSS

GOVERNOR-ELECT DEFERS RAILROAD AND BANK INTERESTS IN HIS APPOINTMENTS

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Governor-elect Walsh has taken a positive stand against the control of the public utilities commission by the railroad and banking interests.

He has refused to reappoint any man named by Gov. Foss to the board to succeed Commissioner Bishop. There is a very interesting story connected with this matter.

It seems that about a week ago Gov. Foss personally visited the governor-elect and put before him a proposition which involved the appointment of a new man to the railroad board. Commissioner Bishop to be reappointed and given a position in the inspection service.

The term of Commissioner Bishop expires in June. Representatives of banking interests were keen to have Mr. Bishop appointed to a minor position and to have a democratic appointee to succeed him.

The answer returned by Mr. Walsh was a direct ultimatum to the New Haven interests. There was a conference last night between Gov. Foss and Chairman Macleod of the railroad board over the matter.

It seems that the banking interests are very much opposed to George W. Anderson on the board, and they are afraid that another man of his type will be appointed.

It now appears that because of Mr. Walsh's refusal to "take care" of Commissioner Bishop, the plan advanced has fallen through. The only name suggested to date for the appointment to succeed Commissioner Bishop is that of Congressman Andrew J. Peters.

There is considerable feeling among the supporters of Gov. Walsh against the attempt on the part of Gov. Foss to displace appointments and to rearrange department officials before he leaves office.

The conference between Gov. Foss and Chairman Macleod is said to have had much to do with three distinct things affecting the railroad situation. They are:

1. The suggested reappointment of the Boston & Maine.
2. The selection of a railroad commissioner to take the place of Commissioner Bishop, resigning, or who may stay until the expiration of his term, July 1, in case the governor does not presently find his successor.
3. The selection of counsel for the public service commission.

BRIDE MISSING YANKEE VOICE 4451 DESERTERS MAN EXECUTED

Woman Disappears With $192 While on Shopping Trip

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 10.—Mrs. Perley White of Bangor, 20 years old, disappeared from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyce, at 13 Willow street, last Saturday, and the police were asked yesterday to aid in a search for her. Mr. and Mrs. White were married Thanksgiving evening, and Mrs. Boyce believes her daughter has met with violence at the hands of a rejected suitor, who made threats on the night of the wedding, she says.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. White came to Bangor on business and visited Mrs. White's parents. White drew $132 from a local bank the next day and gave it to his wife to keep. She had it with her when she started down town shopping.

Mrs. Boyce says her daughter was happy in her marriage and is sure she would communicate with them were she able. She attributes her disappearance to the threats made by a rejected suitor but it was not until today that the police were appealed to.

Mrs. White is tall and slender with dark hair and blue eyes and a slight impudence in her speech. When she disappeared she wore a black hat and a blue suit over which she had on a Mackinaw and a red sweater.

SCHOONER TOWED IN

VINEYARD HAVEN, Dec. 10.—The schooner James R. Drake was towed here last night by the tug Neptune after wallowing in heavy seas off Nantucket for two days, unable to help because of the loss of both anchors. The Drake, which is bound from Philadelphia for Portland, sustained little other damage except a slight straining.

BRING BACK ITS GLOSS, LUSTRE, CHARM AND GET RID OF DANDRUFF

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderline. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Danderline and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—sprouting out all over your scalp.

Danderline is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once. If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderline and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Is Not Nasal, Says Maud Scherer in Address Before Women's Club

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—"The Yankee voice is not nasal, but the very opposite," said Miss Maud Scherer of the Leland Powers school to the surprise of the Jamaica Plain Tuesday club yesterday afternoon. She is addressing the women's clubs of the state on "Voice and Personal Culture," arguing that the voice is one of the greatest factors in personal magnetism.

She said "the Yankee voice" lacks the nasal resonance that makes for beauty, because it is given without heaving the nostrils well opened. "But a good voice is inherent in everyone," she added. "Listening to a voice is one of the best means of making the voice musical, for the same reason that people who live near the sea have something of the sea's mellow reverberation in their tones."

"Women ought all to pitch the voice lower when they have vital thoughts to express, otherwise their tones lack something of the sincerity that convinces. This is especially true in this age when women do so much public speaking."

"The voice is a revelation of, not the real character, but the one biggest fact in the character. A seemingly sweet woman will show by her voice alone a strain of asperity that may reside in her. But it is equally true that cultivating gracious tones makes for a feeling of graciousness. And pleasant tones affect not alone our well-being but that of others."

"To produce a voice that carries, one should breathe from the waist line. Nervousness can be controlled by just such breathing. A low pitch is easier to listen to than a high one, though one should go up and down the scale, and not speak in a monotone. Then to make the voice incisive the speaker should avoid tightening up her throat. Those who do so can tell it by the fact that their voices rise when resting about."

"It would make everyone's voice better if one smiled while talking."

From U.S. Army During Past Year - Loss in Strength

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—With its authorized strength increased by 3352 men, the United States army lost instead of gaining numbers during the fiscal year just closed. Including the Philippine scouts, the army had 85,568 men, compared with 87,465 12 months before.

Adm. Gen. George Andrews, in his annual report, made public today, commented upon the fact that 80 per cent. of the applicants for enlistment at recruiting stations were rejected while 14 per cent. of those accepted at the recruiting stations subsequently were rejected at depots.

Desertions during the past year aggregated 4461.

Murderer of Policeman Was Electrocuted at Auburn, N.Y. Today

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Nelson Sharp of Monroe county died in the electric chair today for the murder of Patrolman Francis Ford of the Rochester police, May 13, 1912. The murderer went unaided to his death. In a statement given out when he was taken to the execution chamber, Sharp admitted his guilt and professed deep regret. Drink, he said, was the cause of his killing Ford, to restore whom to life, he said, he would willingly die a hundred times. Sharp had started a row in his boarding house when Patrolman Ford entered to restore quiet, Sharp shot him to death.

over a dozen of the Mongolian fugitives in the two machines.

Officer John J. Sullivan, whose beat is at the square on the early night shift, was just making his way to the police station after being relieved when a powerful car, which hoped to make a dash for it, drew up in front of the Sun building. The driver of the car, who was bundled up in a huge fur coat with a fur cap drawn down over his eyes so low as to make his features indistinct, bent over the side of the car and asked the officer which was the shortest route to Salem by way of Reading.

The man's evident fear that he would approach the car and the unusual hour of the morning prompted Officer Sullivan to approach the car while giving the desired information. As soon as the driver saw the officer coming toward the machine he threw in his clutch and the car glided out of the square on its way to Salem.

Before the machine of the smugglers got under way, however, Officer Sullivan had come up so close to the car that he could look over the edge and get an accurate view of the interior.

Huddled Under Robes

Half hidden by fur robes and coverings of various descriptions nearly a dozen Chinamen lay huddled up in the spacious tonneau of the car. The machine was devoid of seats and the victims of the smugglers were lying in all sorts of uncomfortable positions, equipping about with each motion of the motor vehicle as though to get more room. Several of the Chinamen, who saw the officer's face when he thrust it suddenly over the edge of the car, set up a strident squealing which was soon lost, however, in the whirl of the motor as the car was driven down East Merrimack street at a tremendous speed. It was plain to be seen that the occupants of the machine had no idea of being apprehended or even questioned as to their business.

Officers Sullivan's Work

While the puzzled officer, in the next few minutes was trying to arrive at a logical deduction as to the motives and character of the strangers a second machine came tearing into Merrimack square and this car also halted in front of the Sun building. The driver of this machine was not bundled as thoroughly as the chauffeur of the first machine, but aroused the officers' suspicions and Officer Sullivan saw immediately that he was a Chinaman.

The driver of the second car stopped in a great hurry, throwing on his brakes while the car was going at a high rate of speed. With the engine still throbbing and his machine just moving, he rang out to the patrolmen in a voice which bore every trace of intense excitement, asking him the same identical question that the chauffeur of the first car had asked.

This time Officer Sullivan made a break for the car at the same time that he pointed toward East Merrimack street. Before he reached the second car and was able to obtain a foothold on the running board, the brakes had been slipped by the alert driver and with the suddenly applied power the large engine leaped ahead at breakneck speed in the wake of the first auto-load of smuggled Chinamen.

Saw Men Hiding

Before the car passed out of sight, however, the now thoroughly aroused officer saw the heads of two Chinamen lifted above the sides of the tonneau. The two yellow visages quickly vanished as though their owners had been drawn down to the floor of the car in great haste.

Officer Sullivan at once called up the police station and stated his exciting experience to Captain Atkinson, who has charge of the police department at night. The captain ordered the patrolmen to stand duty at the spot where the two machines had entered the square and to place under arrest any other suspicious machine.

Notified Federal Police

Captain Atkinson at once called up police headquarters in Boston and advised that the federal authorities be informed of the occurrences in this city. This was done with the result that the telephone lines between the Canadian border and Boston were soon hot with government officials' communications.

The Boston branch of the particular department which deals with smuggling of all descriptions, learned from the officials on the Canadian border that a rumor had been spread to the effect that twenty Chinamen had been smuggled through their lines at a point just above the Thousand Islands. A detail of soldiers from the army post at Prescott had been sent out but nothing definite had been reported. When the Boston authorities called up the government detectives on the northern border had just about given up the search, thinking that the rumor was unfounded. Owing to the detailed descriptions furnished by Officer Sullivan, however, they now think that there is not the slightest doubt but what the story circulated there is true and that the two auto loads of Chinamen which passed through Lowell early this morning were smuggled over the Canadian line and have been driven into Massachusetts by auto.

It is thought by the Boston authorities that Boston was doubtless the destination of the smugglers if they had not been discovered by the Lowell police but whether this fact will cause them to change their course, the officers cannot tell. The federal officers also think that this job was performed by an expert gang who have been making a business of smuggling Chinamen through the Canadian lines for over a year and have in many cases proved too elusive for the slouchy guard Uncle Sam's territory in the vicinity of the St. Lawrence. It is very probable that a substantial reward will be offered for the capture of the gang as the government has been held at bay longer by this aggregation of crooks than is usual in such cases.

POLICE OF BOSTON AND OTHER CITIES NOTIFIED TO WATCH

FOUR SMUGGLERS

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—The police of Boston and surrounding cities and towns have been notified to keep a close watch for any strange Chinese who cannot show their papers. This movement resulted from the passing through Lowell early this morning of two automobiles filled with Chinamen. The driver of one of the cars stopped his machine on Merrimack street to inquire the road to Salem from a policeman. In the darkness the officer could scarcely distinguish those in the car but he directed them on their way, shortly afterward reporting the matter at the station. It is believed that the men were smuggled across the border near Montreal and run down to Boston.

Moore, for alleged injuries received by a fall on the sidewalk in Willie street, also filed claims for compensation, and they were also referred.

Daniel J. Leary filed a claim for $385.19 for steam and plumbing work, and his claim was also referred to the proper department. The mayor announced that at the next meeting he would present an order for the borrowing of $33,000 for the purchase of the park in West Centralville, but later the order was brought by the city solicitor and action was taken upon it.

With the result that the city clerk was instructed to give proper notice through the newspapers, and the matter was postponed for final action to Dec. 23. The tract of land contains 22.87 acres, and the money borrowed for its purchase is to be paid in 20 annual payments.

Hearing for Claims

Inasmuch as several claims for compensation for personal injuries were received, the mayor suggested that a hearing be held purposely for these or any other claims that would be brought to the attention of the council and be suggested that the hearing be set for Friday night, but Commissioner Cummings could not see the light in the same way for he said a meeting of the "literary club" was scheduled for that night. Finally it was agreed to hold the hearing on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

An order to install arc lights on Sparks and Parker streets was adopted. Another order calling for the sum of $1680 for the maintenance of the streets and highways of this city was presented and it was voted to transfer the said sum from the general treasury fund for this money has already been paid to the general treasury fund by the New England Telephone Co. the Box State Street Light Co. and the Lowell Gas Light Co. for street repairs done by the street department. The meeting then adjourned to Monday evening.

Assault Case

The case of Joseph Landry, charged with drunkenness and assault and battery upon Harry Kronvinsky, came up on continuance today. The defendant pleaded guilty to drunkenness but professed innocence on the assault charge.

It seems that the defendant is rather a noisy customer when drunk and that he also is troublesome. The evidence produced showed the court that Landry had made himself about as obnoxious as possible with the complainant, and also his own wife. Judge Burleigh stated that if he got what he deserved Landry would go to jail this morning. He gave the defendant a suspended sentence to the house of correction of four months, however.

Rode in Damage Car

John J. Patterson, who told the court that his home was in Boston and that he was a harness maker there, got very drunk and headed for Lowell via a baggage car. He was arrested upon his arrival here by Officer Dooley. He was very frank to admit his shortcomings and Judge Burleigh ordered his case placed on file after passing out some very good advice to him.

Sadie Reay was released with a suspended sentence to the house at Sherborn for women this morning upon her promise to reform. The case of William Sweeney, charged with a statutory offense, was continued until next Monday. The defendant said that he wished to procure counsel and the court readily agreed to a postponement for this purpose.

PRETTY BROOKLYN GIRL WHO HAS DISAPPEARED, AND HER HOME WHERE LAST SEEN

BROOKLYN, Dec. 10.—No trace has been found of Miss Jessie Evelyn McCann of 438 East Twenty-first street, Brooklyn, who left her home for a short walk, just as Miss Dorothy Arnold did three years ago this week, and then dropped completely out of sight. Hospitals and morgues were searched; the new bureau lately established to identify the unknown dead, turned out all its resources, including photographs and Berillon descriptions of recent bodies received; the police and detective forces of this city and New York did their best search work, spurred on by Mayor Kline, who is a close friend of the missing girl's father. But despite all this not a single clue was found to indicate Miss McCann's whereabouts. Robert G. McCann, the well-to-do father of the missing girl, who is connected with a large wholesale grocery firm, and his son of the same name, have spent days with the detectives. Then they gave the newspapers photographs of Miss Jessie and asked that this appeal be printed in the hope that it might reach her eyes or the eyes of some one who knew her whereabouts: "FOR GOD'S SAKE, SIS, COME HOME TO YOUR HEART BROKEN PARENTS. YOUR MOTHER IS NOW PROSTRATED AND WILL DIE IF YOU DON'T RETURN SOON." "Sis" is the family pet name for the girl. It is inscribed on a gold bracelet which she wore on her left wrist when she left home.

MEXICO ELECTIONS NULL

NATIONAL CONGRESS DECLARES IT IS VOID AND ORDERS MORE BALLOTING FOR NEXT JULY

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 10.—The Mexican congress yesterday nullified the presidential elections. New elections are called for next July.

Congress, according to this action, expects General Huerta to remain in the presidency for at least seven months more, and if the time necessary for the selection and installation of his successor is taken into consideration, it will be well towards the end of September, next year, before he yields his power to another.

In voting last night that the recent presidential election was null, the deputies decided to fix the first Sunday in July, 1914, as the date for the new election. They also confirm the position of General Huerta as provisional president until then.

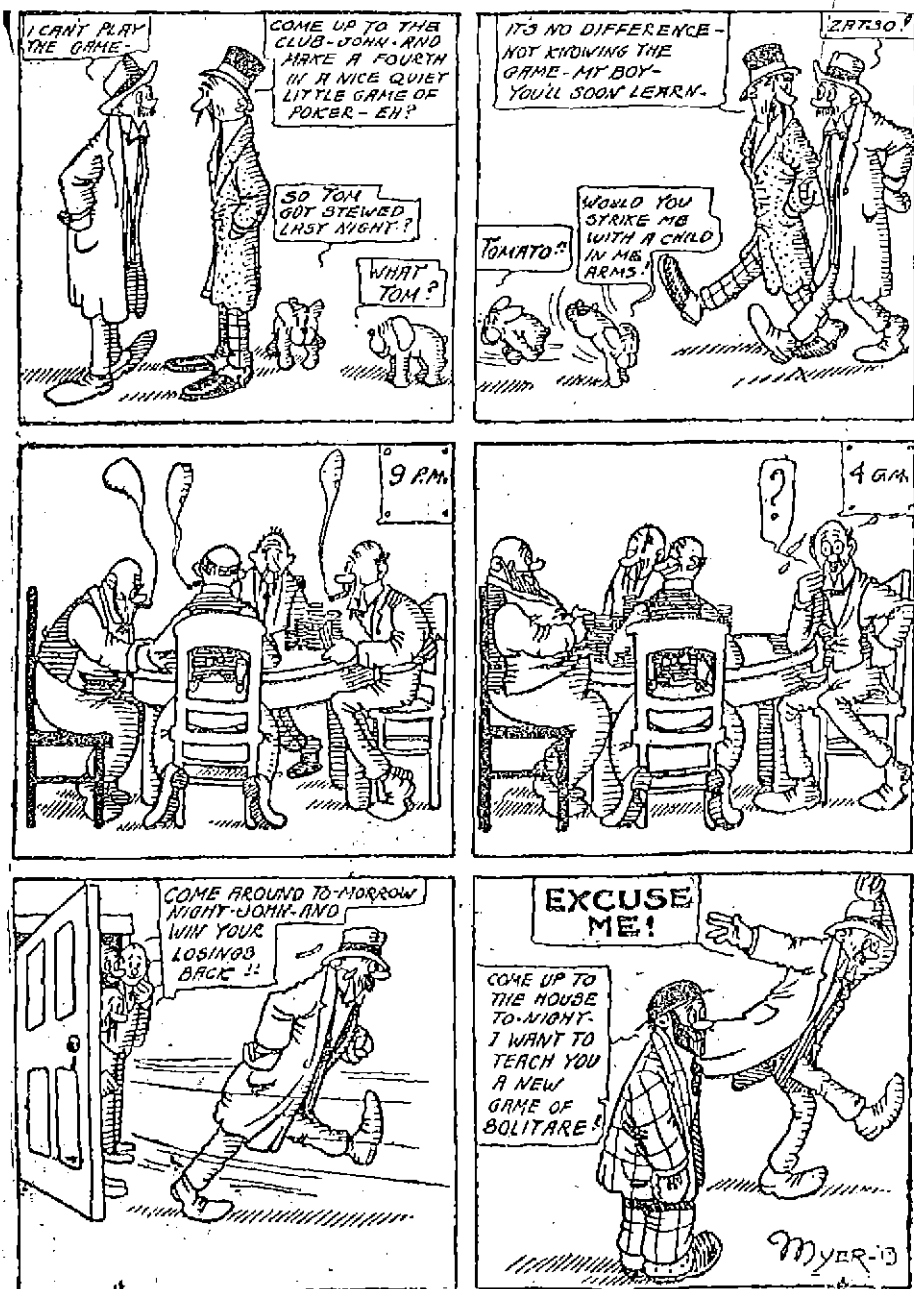

The action of the deputies was accompanied by no debate. The committee report was approved without a dissenting vote as rapidly as the articles could be read. It was not until the last clause was read, referring to General Huerta as provisional president, that the chamber gave evidence other than that of a well-trained organization. When the reading clerk stopped some one began applauding and then instantly the deputies were shouting vivas for Huerta.

The presiding officer was finally able to round them that enthusiasm was all very well, but that it was necessary to ratify the enthusiasm by votes.

EXCUSE ME

IN TORTURE WITH TERRIBLE ERUPTION

Horribly Itching Pimples. Scratched Till Bled. Thoroughly Miserable. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Trouble Disappeared.

Watkins Park, Edgewater-on-the-Hudson, N. J.—"About two years ago I had a terrible breaking out of horribly itching pimples all over the stomach and upper part of my legs. I was in torture and scratched till I bled and could only sleep fitfully at night and was so glad to see the day dawn. I was feverish and thoroughly miserable. The red skin pimples had got a head on them like small porcupines. I rubbed them with a rough cloth, they leaked so. They bleated together and made sores about the size of a nickel and scabbed over. My clothing irritated the sores so that I put a damp handkerchief next to them. Some said it was the itch and others the liver.

"I took several treatments but got no relief. I was suffering for over six weeks when I began with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed myself with Cuticura Soap and hot water every night and when I had dried myself I rubbed the Cuticura Ointment thoroughly in and to my astonishment by the end of a week the whole trouble had disappeared and the old skin brushed off. I have not had a sign of a spot on my body since." (Signed) C. W. Charles, Nov. 9, 1912.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 30c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

GIRLS FLEE FROM FIRE

STUDENTS DRIVEN OUT INTO COLD, CLAD IN NIGHT-CLOTHES, WHEN BLAZE BROKE OUT IN SCHOOL

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 10.—Forty young girls were driven out into the cold this morning, most of them clad only in their nightclothes, when a fire was discovered in a new unoccupied addition to a fashionable private school for girls on the East side. There was no alarm. A squad of police ran into the building and quelled the frightened students. The fire started from a lamp which had recently been completed and the blaze was confined to this building.

SUICIDE TO AVOID ARREST

Providence Man Shoots Himself in Head While Deputy Sheriff Waits to Take Him in Custody

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 10.—Elishe P. Brown, 48 years old, of North Kingstown, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head yesterday. At the November session of the superior court Brown was convicted of being a common drunkard and was placed on probation. It was alleged he had not kept his probation and Deputy Sheriff James E. Wightman went to his home to arrest him.

Brown asked if he might go to his room for some personal belongings and Wightman waited. The latter and members of the Brown family were started a few minutes later to hear a revolver shot. Hurrying to the bedroom, they found Brown breathing his last.

IF HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS, "CASCARETS"

Clean Your Liver and Waste-clogged Bowels Tonight! Feel Buoyant!

Get a 10-cent box now. You're bilious! You have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleansing up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physic—that irritates and injures. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels are cured by Cascarets, they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean, stomach sweet, and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

DOG HAD RABIES

Haverhill Children Who Were Bitten Will Have Pasteur Treatment

HAVERHILL, Dec. 10.—Medical authorities at Harvard university yesterday examined the brain of the dog that bit the pupils of the Carrier grammar school in the Mt. Washington district Monday and found that the dog was suffering from rabies.

Haverhill officials were informed last night of the conclusion reached by the Harvard authorities and at once made plans for the treatment of the nine children bitten by the mad dog. At the expense of the city the victims will be given the Pasteur treatment. It will not be necessary for any of the children to go to New York for treatment. The city officials believe that the city physician and his assistants can deal with the situation as well as New York men, and all who want the treatment given by the city will have the city's service gratis.

BLOWN ACROSS LAKE

FOUR CHICAGO FISHERMEN ARE RECOVERING FROM THE EXPOSURE THEY SUFFERED

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Frost-bitten and in a weakened condition, four Chicago fishermen are recovering today from the exposure they suffered last night when the engine of their 30-foot gasoline boat stalled and they were blown 65 miles across Lake Michigan. The four were Alexander, Frank and George Parichutin and James C. Finnegan. They were all the mercy of the waves for several hours. The canvas covering of the launch was torn loose and was rigged up on an oar for a sail. In this manner the boat was kept in motion and was steered toward the Michigan shore. Fire tugs were ready to make a search of the missing boat when news was received that the four men were safe.

GIRL HALF STARVED

Young Wanderer Who Says Her Home Is in Altoona, Pa., Appeared for Aid at Chicago

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Claiming to be a victim of an inherited desire to wander, 20-year old Margaret Felwell, who says she is a member of a wealthy family of Altoona, Pa., is being cared for by the county today. Frail, weak and half starved, the girl appeared for lodging and food yesterday.

According to the girl's story, she gave up a life of ease, cut family ties and, like her father and his forefathers, set out to see the world. Her father, she says, is Rev. Joseph Pettwell, a traveling evangelist. The girl's relatives will be advised of her condition today.

NEEDLE WIELDERS

President Wilson Will Be Asked to Urge Legislation to Suppress Poisonous Attacks

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President Wilson will be asked to use his good offices in an effort to have legislation passed by congress that will effectively suppress the poisoned needle-wielders who have been active recently. A committee from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has been appointed and will call upon the president. The rapidly with which the poisoned needle practice has grown in New York and, it is believed, in other large cities, has attracted the temperance workers to action. National officers and other officials discussed the subject at a recent board meeting and determined upon the visit to the White House.

PLUNGES INTO RIVER WILL NOT STOP SMOKING

TRAIN DERAILED AT WATERFORD, CONN. AND COACH JUMPED DOWN EMBANKMENT

WATERFORD, Conn., Dec. 10.—Central Vermont railroad train No. 12, from Williamsville to New London, was derailed just north of this railroad bridge here last night about 8 o'clock, and though one of the coaches plunged headlong down an embankment and into the Thames river, no one was seriously injured.

There were only three persons in this coach and the train crew rescued them without difficulty. Except for a wetting and a severe shaking up, the three passengers appeared to be none the worse for their experience. Another coach left the rails, also, but no one was hurt. A broken rail is said to have caused the accident. The engine and tender passed over the rail in safety, but the next two cars jumped the tracks.

CHICAGO WOMEN VOTERS LOSE IN ATTEMPT TO PROHIBIT SMOKING IN POLLING BOOTHS

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—When Chicago women voters go to the polls next spring they will be compelled to mark their ballots in a haze of tobacco smoke. A request that smoking be prohibited at the polls was made to the election commissioners yesterday by the Political Equality league. The commissioners informed the women that there is no law by which smoking can be prohibited. Politicians announced that they will invoke court action in an attempt to prevent women from acting as judges and clerks of election. Their opposition will be based on the Illinois law, which limits the working day of women to ten hours. They say that election officials are often required to work from 18 to 20 hours while ballots are being marked and counted.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

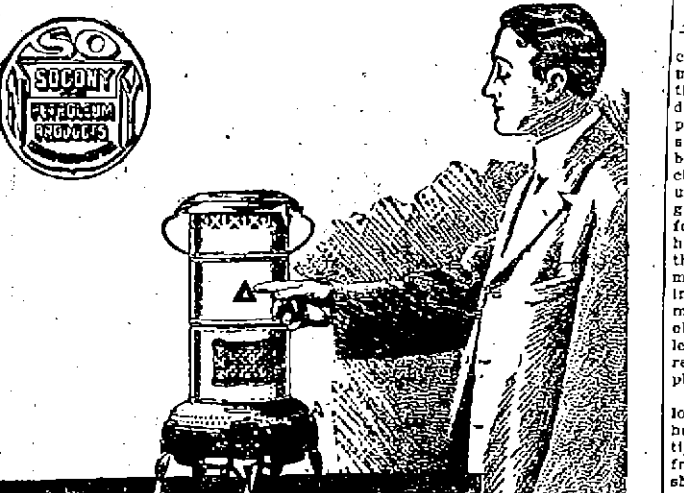

SHOPPING SEASON ON

Local Stores in Holiday Attire and Great Array of Christmas Toys Offered

In every part of the city and in all its activities there are signs of the ever welcome holiday season which will be upon us. People are looking a little eagerly at the decorated store windows with their garlands of laurel, red bows, holly sprays and wonderful assortment of Christmas novelties arranged in attractive boxes or piled up in lavish confusion. Here and there are mysterious curtains across the plate glass panes which hide busy preparations for the busy shopping time which will dawn upon the store world in all its confusion before many days have passed. Already the Christmas shopping has been felt and all the leading stores have supplemented their usual supply of clerks by boys and girls who will work all or part of the time until after the Christmas rush.

Store Decorations
Most of the leading stores have already decorated their show windows with emblems of the Christmas time, and the effect on the casual pedestrian is very cheering. From Merrimack square to city hall one may see many beautiful displays of ladies' and gents' clothing, which feature, especially the smaller articles usually chosen for holiday gifts. Mixed in with garlands of holly or holly and tied up with bows of scarlet one may see gloves, hose, handkerchiefs, neckties in rainbow hues, stationery, desk sets, cushions, books, and a thousand and one other things that are destined to dazzle some surprised pair of eyes on Christmas morning.

People Shopping Early
The managers of three or four of the largest stores said this morning that shopping has begun a little earlier this year than usual, due probably to the wide advertising of the matter and the

It is the sign of the greatest improvements ever made in oil heating devices.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The Perfection Heater, as now made, gives more heat, holds more oil, is better made and works better than any other heater on the market.

It has a wide, shallow oil font, which allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures reliable, unchanging flame and heat, whether the font is full or nearly empty.

The Perfection is smokeless, because the patent locking flame-spreader prevents the wick being turned up high enough to smoke. It is easy to re-wick, because the carrier and wick are combined—just turn out the old and slip in the new.

Indicator tells how much oil is in the font. Filler plug is pushed in like a cork—no screw, no thread to wear. Attractive latched window frame.

constant urgings of the press and many public bodies. The first indications of Christmas trade came on Monday, and everything points to a prosperous season. Owing to the unseasonable weather, trade has not been brisk in winter commodities, but the change in the weather added to the usual Christmas activity will mean a great volume of business for the next few weeks. AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

A few rowdy of people were all that were present last evening when the opera stars from Boston gave a recital at the Opera House. Obviously, the gazing at election bulletins and the participation in the small talk of politics was of greater interest to the groundlings than the listening to the songs of the masters. However, the few who attended were immeasurably repaid by the work of Mr. Mardones and his fellow artists. Particularly, they enjoyed the singing of a tenor never heard in Lowell. Mr. Tanango, an Italian, almost boyish in appearance, who is judged one of the "buds" of the Boston Operatic company, sang songs in tones of beautiful quality and exquisite expression. If any comparison were to be made, it might be said that the singing of Mr. Tanango was the most beautiful received of any of the group. An air from Washington Brindisi and a group of Spanish songs were the mediums chosen by Mr. Tanango to convey the company's total message to captivate the audience. They did. Mr. Mardones' voice appears to improve with age, for many of these beautiful numbers so roundly and successfully that the rafters seemed to tremble with melody. As on many a former occasion the nice diction and clear enunciation which marks the singing of Mr. Howard White was evidenced again when he sang, "King Charles" by Maud White, and "Little Woman" by Osgood. A striking contrast to the first and second songs, "The first is tempestuous, the second placid. So in the singing of the "King Charles" Mr. White's voice and diction were in perfect harmony. In "My Little Woman" it had delicate sweetness and tenderness. An aria by Mardones and a song by "Tosti" were sung by Mr. Mardones with the invariable polish which always distinguishes his work. Probably the most pleasing of the airs sung by Madame Sapin, a contralto, was an encore number entitled "Mighty Lake a Rose." Accompanying herself, she sang the quaint melody with beautiful effect. The most notable of the group was Mlle. Barthelemy, who sang "Vesti la Giubba" from "Tosca" and then Debussy's "Mandoline." Last night's performance was her first appearance before an American audience. Her work was well received. A trio, composed of Messrs. Tanango, Mardones and Fernari sang the dual scene from "Faust" another company of Messrs. Mardones and Tanango and Mlle. Barthelemy gave the prison scene from the same opera, and a duo composed of Madame Sapin and Mlle. Barthelemy sang the Barcarolle from "The Tales of Hoffman." All of these numbers brought forth prolonged applause.

The pianist, Mr. Del Arleone, was exceedingly sympathetic in the playing of the lighter parts of his accompaniments, while in the more difficult passages he performed his work with facile skill.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Miss Young in the leading role in the week's presentation, "Blue Jeans," is making her usual success of a character that once more demonstrates her versatility as a stock actress. Assisting her in the difficult character of "Perry Bassom" is Walter Scott Weeks, the popular leading man of the company, while John Charles, Edouard Dore and the others of the Yoyons contribute largely to the success of the play. There's a generous touch of comedy to the piece, while the stage settings have sufficient originality and detail to make them unusually good. The motion pictures are as usual of the very best makes and include instructive as well as amusing subjects. Seats are now on sale for the Christmas matinee and evening performances.

THE PLAYHOUSE
Living pictures form a pleasing feature of the Playhouse attraction this week. They are presented in connection with "A Night's Frolic in a Car-baret," and are visions of loveliness in regards symmetry and beauty. In

HONESTY IN BASEBALL

Connie Mack of World's Champions Proves That the National Game is on the Level

Delivering a telling blow against the foolish charge that baseball is dishonest, Connie Mack, manager of the world's champion Athletics, has contributed a remarkable article, entitled Honesty in Baseball, in the Saturday Evening Post. The article, written by Mack himself, deals especially with the second game of the series, when Mack refused to let pinch hitters bat for Lapp and Plank in the ninth inning. He gives excellent reasons for not making such a move.

Mack's story in part is as follows: Baseball history records how near we came to turning the trick—one extra-inning game lost, with Mathewson pitching as never before in his life—as he couldn't pitch in the deciding game of the series. We were four out of five, and yet the experts believed before the first game was played that it would be harder than in 1911 for us to beat the Giants.

Was there unnecessary delay in winning, do you think? It is a rule of mine never to play a lost game over in print. It never helps us to win the next game, nor does it serve to make up for the game you have dropped. I had intended to abide by this rule in regard to the game won by New York in the tenth inning after our opportunity to score in the last half of the ninth. But as the charges made to the effect that I was not over-anxious to win the game rest upon certain acts of my own in that contest, I have decided somewhat reluctantly, I admit, to break my rule and here give the reasons why I directed the play in the manner recorded. I do this, let me add, in the same spirit in which I met the direct criticism of a thoughtful man.

First, I will remember, it was a pitchers' battle between Plank for the Athletics and Mathewson for the Giants, with Plank having the better of it for nine innings. He had allowed but four hits, and the Giants hadn't scored when we came to bat in the last half of the ninth. We needed a single run to win. A single, the first man up for us, hit a single. Barry followed with an infield hit on which Doyle, the Giants' captain and second baseman foolishly tried to get his man at first, threw wild, and the ball went to the concrete wall. This put Strunk on third and Barry on second, with nobody out.

When the Manager in Doubt Here is where the manager comes in for the major share of the blame. With no one out and with only one out, a long fly to the outfield would score Strunk and win the game.

A safe hit was not required. So certain was I called for a long fly, I am convinced, first, because I allowed Lapp, our catcher, to go to bat, and because he hit weakly to the first baseman, who threw home, catching Strunk at the plate. The "second guess" of experts and fans decided that it was a mistake to send Lapp to bat; that a utility man should have been substituted. Why? Because the season's batting record of Lapp hadn't been good. Also, because, although this is not an argument advanced, he did not deliver the punch in the crisis.

Here's my answer: The first time he faced Mathewson in the game Lapp struck out. His second time at bat he hit a home run, and was retired at first. The third time he singled. Now he was up for the fourth time, having shown improvement each succeeding turn at bat. Why should I want to take Lapp out with his batting record in the game and substitute an untried man? Then again, there was the attitude of mind, his strong heart in the emergency. The moment Strunk singled in that ninth Lapp jumped up from the bench, grabbed a bat and exclaimed to me: "Now put your man down to second and I'll win the game for you!"

Somebody said: "It's dogged as does it."

But most of the criticism heaped upon me came because I let Plank follow Lapp, instead of putting in a utility man, and because he also hit to the first baseman, and Barry was run down between third and home. Let's look at Plank's batting up to that time: He hadn't struck out, he had made one safe hit, and he had knocked a blazing liner which the Giants' shortstop had caught brilliantly. It is a fact, which few who saw that game apparently remember, that Plank hit that ball harder than any man on our team. Home Run Baker not excepted.

"But he's a pitcher!" critics say. That's their whole argument. Plank's batting in the game we're talking about wasn't considered. He was to be taken out merely because he was a pitcher. Who won the game for New York, sending in the only run needed to win? Mathewson, a pitcher!

Suppose it had been the turn of Collins to bat—Collins who hit an average of .121 for the series. Would any critic have advised the substitution of a utility man for Collins? But in this game Collins did not hit the ball as hard as Plank did and his third time up struck out.

Mack Anticipated Situation

The fact is, I had been wrestling with this situation in a way long before it actually arose. Whereas, to the expert and to the fan it was a problem unexpectedly presented on the moment after Doyle's wild throw to first, as the manager of the team and the director of the game, it was my duty to be prepared for this emergency. I was prepared. In the first place I knew Mathewson. He is the sort of pitcher who gets you the first time; then slowly you begin to find him. He beat us, 2 to 1, in the first game in 1911. We beat him the second game he faced us in that series, and knocked him from the box the third. In this last series he beat us the first game—the game I'm discussing. We beat him his next game—the deciding game, played in New York. Apply this to the individual: In the tenth-inning game, with two men on base, he struck out Baker the first time up, but afterward Lapp got two hits. So Lapp got to him, as I have stated. But the point I am making is that a new man coming into the game as a pinch hitter would have mighty little chance against Mathewson's great pitching in that contest.

Now, to confound the experts: When Lapp and Plank went to bat, the odds were 2 to 1 in the outfield. It's easy! I doubt if 20 men out of the 20,000 at that game knew that in the eighth inning but one fly ball, far enough out to score a man from third, had been hit by the Athletics. And yet it was "easy" to pick a man to score Strunk or Barry from third on a fly to the outfield. As a matter of fact, Eddie Murphy knocked the only fly ball which would have scored a man from third. It was the drive between left and center that Burns caught after a sharp run. But when Murphy faced Mathewson, after Lapp and Plank had failed to deliver the punch, he hit to pitcher and was an easy out at first. But he didn't knock a long fly to the outfield!

Wanted Last Game Badly This brings me, according to my style of thought to the last game of the world's series—that played in New York on Saturday. There were many reasons why I wanted this game, wanted it badly. One of these, and not the least important reason, was that I knew that the gamblers expected us to lose it—and were betting on what they thought was a certainty. You see, before the series opened we sold tickets for three games in Philadelphia, with the understanding that if the third game was not played money would be refunded. We played in Philadelphia Wednesday and Friday, therefore the series would have to be prolonged until Monday in order to get in the third Philadelphia game.

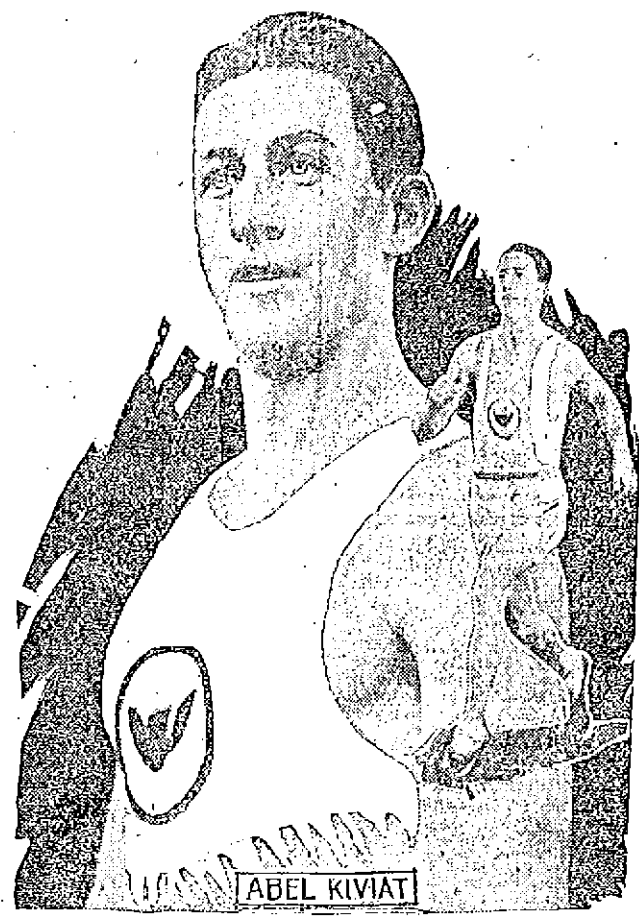

Everybody knew approximately how much money was at stake. With the exception of the bleachers, every seat in Shibe park had been sold for Monday's game, and the money was actually in the treasury of our club. The amount—loving the exact figures—was $45,639. We have 4000 bleacher seats, and as these brought $1 apiece for the two games played, with hundreds of disappointed, we were certain to add $4000 to the amount I have named. In other words, if we lost in New York on Saturday about $50,000 would be divided between the Philadelphia and New York clubs. Looking at it from a commercial angle—from the dishonest standpoint—there was every inducement for our club—not the players—lose Saturday.

Understanding that if the third game was not played, as well as of money, there was every inducement for New York to win that game.

We won the game, 3 to 1. We paid back in cash to holders of tickets $45,639. Compare this with any business where affairs you know ultimately, and then tell me if you find any better evidence of downright honesty.

My last word is to the fair-minded.

KIVIAT, WHO WON NEW TITLE IN NATIONAL CROSS COUNTRY RACE

Abel Kiviat won the national cross country championship and therefore has a new claim to fame. The course was six miles long. Kiviat, a member of the Irish-American Athletic club of New York city, was one of the American point winners at the last Olympic games.

honest man who loves baseball for his own sake, yet who is misjudged enough sometimes to question the integrity of our national pastime. Think my friend, of this: Day after day we are compelled to release ball players, season after season old players are dropping out to make way for young blood. Naturally, for it is human nature, the player released or dropped can't help but feel a little soreness toward those who have displaced him on the field. Absolutely control the game are cast aside when their work falls below a certain high standard. They, too, may cherish some slight animosity against the league head who has displaced them of a good living. What a large, what a growing list of men, freed from club and league discipline, to whom the detractors of baseball could go for proof as to the unfairness or dishonesty of the game.

"What about this game of baseball?" asks the man who suspects of the player or the umpire who is through with the game forever. "You've taken part in your last game, you've nothing to lose; come out and tell us how it's framed up."

Doubtless the question has been asked. But the answer has never been given to the public. Why? Because there's nothing to tell—baseball is strictly on the level.

KIDNAPPING CHARGE

ALLEGED THAT TWO LYNN MEN TOOK THREE-YEAR-OLD BOY FROM WOMAN HOME

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Thomas and Francis Sliney of Lynn were served with summonses yesterday afternoon for their appearance in the Penobscot police court Friday morning in connection with the kidnapping of the three-year-old son of Joseph Duvenger, a shoe worker, living at Lake Shore park, Penobscot, Monday night, and to answer to a charge of assault made in connection with the alleged kidnapping.

About 5 o'clock Monday night, while the mother of Joseph Duvenger was putting her little grandson to bed, six men entered the house in Peabody, it is said, and made their way to the bedroom. Without addressing the grandmother of the child, one of the party reached the side of the boy and started out of the house with him.

William Duvenger, a brother of the boy's father, tried to stop the men from taking the child from the home. In the fight he was beaten to unconsciousness. When he regained consciousness, he claimed, he recognized two of his assailants to be Thomas and Francis Sliney of Lynn, brothers of the boy's mother.

Mrs. Duvenger has not lived with Duvenger for some time, it is said. Duvenger said last night that he had received no word from the boy's mother that she wanted the boy. He said that he is confident the boy was taken to his mother as soon as his kidnapping was effected. Duvenger said that his wife lives in Lynn with one of her brothers.

Will Make up the Card at This Week's Meeting of the Lowell A. C.—Chick and O'Neill Confident

Word has been received from Eddie Mack, manager of Joe Chick that his boy is in great shape for his bout with Young Charlie O'Neill on Saturday evening. Chick is working out with Charlie Neary and Kid McDonald for sparring partners. Young O'Neill, the fighting Frenchman, is rapidly building up into form and expects to defeat Chick. O'Neill is the best welterweight in Rhode Island and has been some of the leading boys of his weight in the country. The winner will probably be matched with Frank Lombardi of Philadelphia who has already fought a draw with both boys. In the semi-final bout of eight rounds, Gardner Brooks will meet a boy who should be able to give him a strenuous bout. Young Harley of Roxbury has been anxious to meet Brooks for some time and is very confident of defeating him. Frankie Quinn of Lawrence will meet Gino Brooks in one of the preliminary bouts. The other six round bout will bring together two local boys, Young Cummings and Young Smith. Both are promising boys and will be staged in addition to the regular card.

SAY GAFFNEY GOT CASH

PRESIDENT OF BOSTON NATIONAL BASEBALL TEAM MIXED UP IN JOHN DOE INQUIRY

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—James E. Gaffney, president of the Boston National league club and brother-in-law of Tammany leader Chas. F. Murphy, and Joseph D. Carroll, former treasurer of Tammany hall, split $11,000 in commissions with the agent of a payment company under an oral agreement by which they were to use their political influence to obtain contracts for the company with the state highway department, according to testimony adduced yesterday at District Attorney Whitman's John Doe inquiry into state highway graft.

Two thousand dollars more of the commissions went in cash, according to the testimony, to George M. Palmer, chairman of the democratic state committee, in response to a request for a campaign contribution made by the agent by C. Gordon Reel, deputy highway commissioner, through whom the contracts were obtained. The contribution, the district attorney learned, was never reported.

The agent was John M. Murphy, representing the firm of Warren Brothers of Boston, manufacturers of bitulithic and other pavement material, and it was Murphy who gave the testimony. District Attorney Whitman says he considers it the most important he has brought to light, and that on it he will seek an indictment for conspiracy. John M. Murphy and others who are believed to have knowledge of the transactions will be witnesses.

Before taking up the case, however, Mr. Whitman will place before the jury evidence that State Chairman Palmer received a political contribution from a corporation, an offense for which Arthur M. Ladd, treasurer of the democratic state committee, now stands indicted.

Evidence to the effect that Palmer had accepted such a contribution was given yesterday by Dudley E. Van Wirt, vice president of the Food and Van Wirt Engineering & Construction company of Hudson Falls, N. Y., who is expected to go before the grand jury today.

Van Wirt testified yesterday that he did not know what Gaffney and Carroll had done to help him to obtain the contracts, but that he had taken them into what he termed "an oral partnership" because "they could help me with Mr. Reel."

He said that in the fall of 1911 he had entered into a contract with Warren Brothers by which he was to get a commission of 12 1/2 cents a square yard on all pavement material that he put in for the state highway department to purchase.

In March of 1912, he saw Reel in Albany and obtained contracts which netted him a commission of $13,000, Murphy said. This he said he had agreed to divide equally with Gaffney and Carroll, but Reel asked him if he wasn't "going to do anything for the democratic party?" In response to this request, Murphy said he went to New York and gave $2000 in cash to George M. Palmer as a contribution, receiving from him an undated receipt which he produced. It was placed in evidence.

Murphy said Carroll had approved the contribution, but that he had not consulted Gaffney about it, as Gaffney was out of town. Later he told Gaffney about it.

Murphy was loath to concede that he had taken the pair into partnership with him, because of their political influence.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Eugene Pheu, arrested for drunkenness, was held in $1000 yesterday by Judge Creed in the municipal court, pending the recovery of Patrolman John Redmond of Station 16, whom Pheu is said to have kicked Sunday night while Redmond sat with him in the police auto patrol.

The officer is said to be seriously ill, and it will be a day before his physician will be able to determine the extent of his injuries.

HEAD OF GROCERS DEAD

WINDSOR, Conn., Dec. 10.—Arthur M. Wilson, president of the New England Grocers' association for the past 10 years, died at his home at Windsor last night, after four weeks' illness of capillary bronchitis. He was 60 and first vice president of the National Grocers' association.

He was 56 years old and was for many years treasurer of the wholesale grocery firm of E. S. Kibbe & Co. of Hartford. His widow survives.

Y.M.C.A. LEAGUE TENER ELECTED

Several Games Were Rolled Last Night—Other Contests

Two games were rolled off last night in the Y.M.C.A. league on the alleys of the local association, the Iroquois and the Mohawks being the winners. Callahan rolled the highest total as well as single in the brace of games.

There was only one contest rolled in the Baraca league. The First Baptist outrolled their brethren from the First Primitive M. E. Turner of the winners was high man.

The Massachusetts Beavers won their match game from the Crimmon C. C. last night in an interesting, although not close game. Duffey rolled the best total of the match.

The Tremont & Suffolk second team sent the Phillips Shoe Shop down to defeat in its game last night, winning two of the three strings and winning up the game with a score of 1317 to 1328. Farrell displayed good form for the winners.

The Clerks and Drivers of the Lowell Cooperative Co. rolled a three man game off last night, the former winning by the score of 145 to 603.

In the Minor league the Superbas were busy subduing the Bohemians by the score of 1347 to 1296. Underwood's single of 115 was one of the features of the contests.

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Two of the 16 Massachusetts cities which held elections yesterday changed their attitude on the license question.

Lynn broke a drought of six years by voting in favor of license; Newburyport returned to the no-license fold after a year in which liquor was legally sold by reason of scant margin of three votes, declared for license last year.

Worcester, several years ago the largest no-license city in the world, added further to the increasing majority there in favor of license.

Only one of the mayors who came up for re-election was refused. This was Mayor James E. O'Donnell of Lowell, who was defeated by Dennis J. Murphy. Mayor Michael A. Scanlon of Lawrence was apparently returned by a margin of 152 votes, which was doubted by his opponent, ex-Mayor White, on whose request a recount will be held today. Ex-Mayor White's re-entry into politics was made after serving a jail sentence for conspiracy, and this lent interest to the Lawrence election.

National party lines were largely lost in the cities in which elections were held, many being under commission forms of government. As a result indications of republican, democratic or progressive success or failure were lacking in most cases.

Republicans suffered a defeat in Newton, where Edwin O. Childs, Jr., running as an independent with democratic backing, although a republican in national politics, was successful in defeating the regular republican candidate, Alston Burr. It was the first time such an overturn has occurred in Newton in 21 years.

A republican gain was recorded in Worcester, where Mayor George M. Wright was re-elected by the largest plurality ever accorded a candidate for mayor in that city.

SCANLON REELECTED

Mayor of Lawrence Wins by 152 Votes—White Asks for Recount—License Wins

LAWRENCE, Dec. 10.—Mayor Michael A. Scanlon won reelection for a second year yesterday in a spirited contest with former Mayor William P. White, the majority being only 152 votes.

Former Mayor White late last night petitioned for a recount, and the registrars of voters ordered that the vote for mayor be recounted at 2 p. m. today. The ballot boxes, meantime, are being guarded by police. The vote was: Scanlon, 4586; White, 4814.

The fact that ex-Mayor White was convicted of conspiracy and sentenced to jail during his second term of office in 1910 was made a campaign issue by Mayor Scanlon. White served 17 months of a three-year sentence and was pardoned by Governor Foss and the executive council.

Mayor Scanlon was chief executive of the city during the great textile strike of two years ago. His principal lieutenant during the time of trouble, Commissioner of Public Safety Cornelius F. Lynch, met defeat yesterday in his candidacy for re-election. The victorious candidate was James W. Callaghan, a police officer. Paul Hanigan, commissioner of streets, was re-elected in a contest with former Superintendent of Streets Chester E. Hudson.

The city went license by 4866 to 2815. Last year's vote was: Yes, 6224; no, 2812.

LICENSE IN LYNN

City Switches to "Wet" Column After Six Years of No-License, By Majority of 58

LYNN, Dec. 10.—After one of the bitterest fights in years, the city of Lynn, for six consecutive years a no-license community, yesterday switched to the license column by a majority of 58 votes.

The total vote was, yes 7885, no 7826, as compared with last year's vote of, yes 7343, no 8115. License sympathizers, shown on the increase in all but three of the city's precincts, the most notable gain coming in precinct 2 of ward 5.

The result of the vote came as a distinct surprise to the no-license element and a recount will be demanded. Beginning with a small no-license majority in 1906, the element favoring that side of the issue has increased its majority each year, in 1912 winning by nearly 800 votes.

This year, aware of the intention of the license sympathizers to wage a campaign more strenuous than ever, the no-license element conducted the most spectacular campaign in the history of the city. No-license rallies were held nightly in nearly every precinct. No-license was made the theme of the sermons of many of the Shoo City clergymen. Many dollars were spent in circulating no-license literature and display cards.

For the most notable of the efforts of the no-license element came in a gigantic parade last Saturday, in which thousands of the school children and hundreds of the women of the city took part.

Those favoring license built their arguments on the comparison of the financial and business condition of the city under license with the present condition of the city. They traced the loss of several shoe manufacturers, and other former Lynn concerns to the absence of license, and by means of rallies and placards sought to bring out a big vote favoring license.

Early returns showed the license vote to be on the increase, and when the final count was made the city had again registered its approval of license, although by such a small majority that those opposing the issue believe that a recount will mean a small no-license majority.

The office of commissioner of water supply was won by Thomas Campbell, 2d, over George N. Nichols, the vote being 8451 to 5568. George Cornell defeated Dennis Dineen for the office of commissioner of public property by a vote of 5162 to 5526, while Dr. Nathaniel Breed and Mrs. Myra D. Ruppel were the successful candidate for the school committee.

JACK GERAGHTY ELECTED

Woburn Sends Husband of Former Julia French to Board of Aldermen—City Continues No-License

WOBURN, Dec. 10.—"Handsome Jack" Geraghty, who married Julia French and who is thereby related by marriage to half the wealthy families of New York city, was elected to the board of aldermen of this city yesterday. He is an automobile dealer, and the principal plank of his platform was better roads. Mrs. Geraghty, during the campaign, was very active on his behalf, and it is said her influence was responsible for many votes, as he is a comparatively new-comer in Woburn.

Mayor William H. Hatcher, democrat, was re-elected over John W. Fox, republican, by a vote of 2005 to 861. Fox, member of the board of public works James H. Kelley, democrat, was elected over Walter R. Merchant, republican. The vote was 1534 to 1268. The city will continue to be no-license. The vote was: No, 1512; yes, 1226. The democrats will control the board of aldermen.

BEN ORDINANCE

Defeated at Melrose—Mayor Oliver B. Munroe Was Re-elected—"Pony Express" License Lost

MELROSE, Dec. 10.—Melrose yesterday re-elected Mayor Oliver B. Munroe and voted against a proposal to govern the keeping of hens by ordinance, a matter which aroused much discussion during the campaign. Mayor Munroe succeeds himself after a contest with former-Mayor Clas.

E. French, which brought out a vote much larger than that of last year. The count showed: Munroe 1590 votes; French 995.

No-license followers added somewhat to the margin in opposition to the sale of liquor. The vote was: Yes, 430; no, 2161. Last year it stood: Yes, 476; no, 1263. A proposal to license "pony express" was defeated, 1450 to 390.

CHANGE GOVERNMENT

Attleboro Citizens Vote in Favor of Commission Form—Three Plans on the Ballot

ATTLEBORO, Dec. 10.—The first steps toward changing the town's form of government were taken yesterday when the townsmen voted 1760 to 325 in favor of the change. Of three plans submitted, that for a commission form of government received 430 votes, a city manager plan received 325 and a plan for a mayor and city council received 127. Attleboro has a population of 18,000.

DARRETT WON

Defeated Abbott For School Board at Medford in Exciting Contest—City Voted No Again

MEDFORD, Dec. 10.—A contest for school committee in which Edward W. Darrett defeated Ernest W. Abbott was the only exciting feature of the city election yesterday. The city voted as usual on the license question, 2164 against license, and 556 in favor. The vote last year was yes 812; no, 2185.

MALDEN STAYS DRY

Mayr Schumaker Was Re-elected by a Vote of 3545 to 2450—Defeated O. P. Doonan

MALDEN, Dec. 10.—Mayor Charles Schumaker was re-elected yesterday defeating Owen P. Doonan by a vote of 3545 to 2450. The city again registered its opposition to license by 1937 to 1770. The vote last year was yes, 1710; no, 3510.

MAYOR CHAMBERS WINS

Re-elected to a Third Term in Everett—Veteran School Committee Re-elected

EVERETT, Dec. 10.—Mayor James Chambers was re-elected to a third term yesterday without having made any campaign. He received 2214 votes to 1625 for his opponent, James M. Trohey. The latter had never previously been prominent in local politics but made a vigorous speaking campaign. The large vote was unexpected. As usual the city voted against license, by 2595 to 1653. The vote last year was yes, 1014; no, 2515. Albert W. Lewis, the oldest school committee in active service in Massachusetts was re-elected.

GIBBS STAYS "WET"

Mayor Willard Re-elected—Exciting Contests Over Members of Board of Aldermen

GIBBS, Dec. 10.—Mayor Edward E. Willard of Gibbs was re-elected yesterday, defeating his opponent, Alfred L. Magaz, by 1460 votes. The vote was Willard, 2947; Magaz, 1647. The aldermen elected at large were William J. Williams, present member of the board of aldermen, and Marcus M. Bennett, who was a member of the board in 1911.

Those elected by wards are Alderman Hugh M. McLaughlin from ward 1, defeating former Alderman James J. Kane; Harry Cohen in ward 2, defeating present Alderman William F. Morse.

In ward 3 former Alderman David White defeated the present, Alderman James J. Shannon, who sought re-election; in Ward 4 Richard A. Voke defeated George W. Chickney by five votes and in ward 5 Alexander Leslie easily defeated his opponent, William A. Reed, Jr., the latter also being defeated for the legislature on the progressive ticket at the state election.

The license advocates got a big scare, but carried the city by a majority of 504 votes, their majority being cut from last year's vote, when they carried the city by 1070. The vote yesterday was 2516, no, 2011. Too much activity in the state election is the cause assigned for the reduction in the vote for license.

The surprise in the result was the defeat of Alderman William A. O'Brien, present president of the aldermen, and the defeat of Alderman James J. Shannon in ward 3. In the at-large contest there were four candidates—Alderman O'Brien and Williams, who were opposed by William A. Levy and former Alderman Marcus M. Merritt. Williams and Merritt were the winners.

DRY IN BEVERLY

Willard O. Wyles, Former Prohibition Candidate for Governor, Heads Board of Aldermen

BEVERLY, Dec. 10.—In the absence of a contest for mayor, the vote on license and for members of the board of aldermen attracted most attention in yesterday's election results. The license vote was: Yes, 1207; no, 2091.

"NO" IN NEWBURYPORT

City Switches Back From Last Year's License Vote—Mayor Landford Re-elected

NEWBURYPORT, Dec. 10.—A majority of three votes in favor of license last year was changed to a margin of 276 against license in the city election yesterday.

Mayor Miriam H. Landford was re-elected by a plurality of 424 in a three-cornered contest. The vote for mayor gave Landford 1366; Arthur Whittington, 512; Norman Russell, 205. No party designations were used.

Activity by the Civic League in favor of a no-license regime stirred up interest in this issue, and the total vote was one of the largest in years. It developed 1436 in favor of license, and 1712 opposed; as against 1526 who favored license last year, and 1523 who voted no.

CHANGE IN NEWTON

Edwin O. Childs, Jr., First Mayor Other Than Republican to Be Elected in 21 Years

NEWTON, Dec. 10.—A man other than the regular republican candidate was elected mayor of Newton yesterday for the first time in 21 years. Edwin O. Childs, Jr., winning from Alston Burr by a majority of 150 votes. Childs ran as an independent, with democratic support, although a republican in national politics. Burr was accorded the nominations of both the republican and progressive parties. The vote was: Childs 2773, Burr 2593.

Former proportions of 3 to 1 were maintained in the vote against license, which stood: Yes, 1178; no, 3658. Last year the vote was: Yes, 288; no, 3111.

YES IN CHICOPH

License by Increased Majority—Mayor Rivers, Independent, Was Re-elected

CHICOPH, Dec. 10.—Mayor Frank A. Rivers, independent, was re-elected yesterday by a majority of 511 over Houlahan, democrat. License prevailed again, the vote being: Yes, 1782; no, 1058. The vote in 1912 was: Yes, 1735; no, 1102.

SALEM DRY AGAIN

Gifford and Lally Elected as Commissioners After an Exciting Contest—Lally Nelt Placed in Election

SALEM, Dec. 10.—Lacking a contest for mayor, John J. Hurley holding over for two more years, the success of the no-license advocates was an interesting feature of the election here. The city went dry for the fifth time in as many years. The majority was 575.

A contest for two commissionships in the city government furnished excellent sport. The incumbents were both up for re-election, but, while William L. Gifford, commissioner of public property, was successful, William H. Colbert, commissioner of public health, met defeat. Thomas J. Lally won the second place. Lally was the object of a suit for libel brought jointly by Commissioners Gifford and Colbert as a result of statements alleged to have been made by him on the platform and in pamphlets during the campaign.

The vote on the license question was, yes 3013, no 3021, as compared with last year's vote of yes 3024 no 4097.

WORCESTER "WET"

Stays in License Column by Decreased Vote—Mayor Wright, Republican, Re-elected

WORCESTER, Dec. 10.—The republican swept Worcester in the municipal election yesterday and by an overwhelming vote the city stayed in the wet column, where it has been for the last four years.

Mayor George M. Wright, republican, was re-elected, receiving 13,082 votes. Dr. Thomas J. Barrett, democrat, received 7215 votes and John W. Armer, progressive, received 747 votes. The license vote was: Yes, 12,650; no, 7908. Last year the license vote was: Yes, 13,105; no, 8107.

The board of aldermen elected stands: Republicans, 8; democrats, 3. The city council elected stands: Republicans, 12; democrats, 4.

CHARITY DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Supt. Dowd Calls for $10,000 Of the Telephone and Telegraph Lines Throughout the Country and Loan Was Voted by the Municipal Council Today Being Considered by Wilson

Michael J. Dowd, superintendent of the charity department has sent a communication to the mayor, who is also commissioner of public safety, and under whose control is the charity department, a communication to the effect that the sum of $10,000 will be necessary to carry on the work of the charity department for the balance of the year, and accordingly, the mayor issued an order for the borrowing of $10,000. The order was read at this morning's meeting and was adopted.

The communication received by His Honor is as follows:

His Honor, James E. O'Donnell, Mayor, Commissioner of Public Safety.

Dear Sir: I have the honor to inform you that an additional appropriation of $10,000, divided as follows: $2500 to the Children's Street hospital, and $7500 to the outdoor relief, will be necessary to carry on the work of the charity department for the balance of the year.

The municipal council voted an appropriation of $10,000 to the hospital when making up the annual appropriation. The actual expenses of the hospital for the last three years have been as follows: 1910, $32,012.48; 1911, $34,447.38; 1912, $32,785.01. Average expenses for three years, $32,555.36. This year the prices of necessities of life have advanced to the highest mark, and it has been impossible to keep within the appropriation. The advance in meat prices is almost sufficient to account for the difference in the cost of maintaining the hospital. In 1910, beef four cost 5 1/2 cents and 5 1/2 cents per pound. In 1911, the cost 6 1/2 cents, 7 1/2 and 7 1/2 cents. In 1912, for January and February, the price was 7 1/2 cents per pound, and from March to September, 8 cents per pound. From September to January, 1913, the price was 9 1/2 to 10 cents per pound.

This year the price was 9 1/2 to 10 cents per pound from January to April. In April the price was so high that the purchasing agent did not make a contract, but bought on the market prices as follows: 9 1/2, 9 1/2, 10, 10 1/2, 10 1/2 and 11 cents per pound.

The most of the purchases were at 10 1/2 and 11 cents per pound. As we use about 1500 pounds of beef four per week, an addition of only two cents per pound means an added expense of $3000 per week, or $1500 per year. The price of mutton four was 8 cents and 10 cents per pound in 1912. In 1913 the price was 12 cents per pound. We use about 700 pounds of mutton four per month. At an average increase of four cents per pound—this means an increase of $2800 per month, or $33600 per year. All other meats, fish, coffee, tea, butter, buttering, eggs, etc., brought increased prices this year. Add to this the fact that we had an average of about 20 inmates more this summer than in 1912 and you will readily understand that expenses could not possibly be kept within the appropriation.

The ordinary expenses of the out door relief would be met by the appropriation, but the legislature, in its wisdom, passed a law this year requiring cities and towns to add mothers with dependent children, to bring up such children, properly, in their own homes. Under this act we are now adding 64 mothers and 203 children, and this number will undoubtedly be increased. The aid given varies from $5 a month to $40 a month, according to the needs of the family. For October the expense under this law was $1050. For November it will exceed $1100. For December the expense will be higher than in November, as applications are constantly coming in.

This law, while very expensive to the city and state, undoubtedly will do a very great deal of good and will enable many tired, worn-out mothers to obtain a much-needed rest, and will give to the children the best gift they could have—a mother's undivided care and attention.

Yours very respectfully,

M. J. Dowd,

Superintendent of Charity Dept.

Mayor O'Donnell Cheerful

Mayor James E. O'Donnell, who was defeated for reelection as chief magistrate of this city, is a cheerful loser.

He seemed very happy this forenoon when he presided over the meeting of the council, and at the close of the meeting he gave the newspaper men an interview. He attributes his defeat to the fact that the Franco-American vote went to his opponent, and when he was asked if the story that was circulated about town that he had discharged John Powers, an employee of the health department for the reason that Powers was alleged to have been opposed to the mayor's election, he replied:

"In my two years of service in the city government I have never discharged or threatened to discharge any employee of any department under my control, nor have I ever asked any subordinate to favor my candidacy. As a matter of fact Mr. Powers is still in the employ of the health department."

His Honor has received an invitation to attend a reception which will be tendered at the residence of Rev. William Lawrence, D. D., bishop of the Massachusetts Episcopate, on December 15 at Central Hall. The affair will be to commemorate the anniversary of the consecration of the bishop and is in the hands of a committee consisting of Episcopalians of this city. The invitation was sent by Rev. Appleton Granville, pastor of St. Anne's church.

HENS OVER CHILD

Unknown Man Then Drives Horse Away at Fast Clip in Haverhill—Girl Seriously Injured

HAVERHILL, Dec. 10.—Delores Donahue, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donahue, is in a critical condition at the home of her parents, on Locust street from concussion of the brain, which she sustained when run over by a horse and carriage on Winter street, near Duncan street, yesterday afternoon.

The little girl, with her mother, had been out visiting during the afternoon and just before 5 o'clock they were returning home. Reaching Hale street Mrs. Donahue and her daughter started to cross Winter street to meet Mr. Donahue, who is employed in a shoe factory.

As they were in the middle of the street a horse and light carriage, driven by an unknown man, came along at a fast clip and the girl was knocked down by the horse, trampled upon and the wheels passed over her head. The driver of the outfit did not stop, but, whipping up his horse, drove rapidly away without waiting to ascertain the extent of the injuries of the girl.

Mrs. Donahue picked up her daughter and she was hurried home, suffering intense pain, from which she became delirious. A physician found no bones broken, but that the girl was suffering from concussion of the brain. She may also be hurt internally.

TRUST LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President Wilson's trust legislation was discussed at a conference at the White House today between Chairman Clayton of the house judiciary committee and several of its members. The committee already has begun hearings on several of its bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Government ownership of telephone and telegraph lines throughout the country is being seriously considered by President Wilson. Conference between the president and Postmaster General Burleson have led to a gathering of information at the practical working of government ownership in those countries where such a system is in operation. The subject will be discussed at some length in the postmaster general's annual report soon to be made public. The postmaster general saw the president for a few minutes today and while they did not discuss the subject Mr. Burleson said that as he left the White House on previous occasions when he had discussed the question with the president he had found his mind open and receptive to information. Though bills have been drafted by members of congress looking to government ownership they have not been agreed on as an administrative measure while the result of Mr. Burleson's investigations are being investigated.

"There is no doubt," said Mr. Burleson, "that the inauguration of the parcel post and the postal savings system has given a tremendous impetus to the desire of people all over the country to have the government become the means of communication everywhere. It is a subject involving two or three hundred million dollars and we must go very slowly in inquiring into it. Every great nation except us has adopted it. I don't want to make any recommendations to congress until I am absolutely sure of my ground."

DR. F. G. GULLILAND

Chosen Head of the Lowell Dental Association's Last Evening Banquet and Speeches.

The members of the Lowell Dental society held their annual meeting last night and elected officers for the ensuing year. The affair which was largely attended was held at Page's banquet room and was preceded by a dainty luncheon.

The guests assembled around the festive board at 8 o'clock and partook of a dainty dinner and at the close of the repast a business meeting was held in the course of which the election of officers was held with the following result: Dr. F. G. Gulliland, president; Dr. N. S. Phillips, vice president; Dr. G. W. Bunnville, secretary; Dr. W. H. Popen, treasurer; Dr. H. L. Darlington, librarian.

Speeches were then in order and the principal address was delivered by Dr. D. J. Edmunds of Boston, who spoke on "Ophtholopia." Dr. A. S. McLeod presided and the following three new members were elected: Dr. J. J. McGreevy, Dr. F. S. Merrill and Dr. J. W. Janzen.

SHOE MACHINERY CASE

ACQUIRED CONTROL OF ALL THE ONE LASTING MACHINE MADE IN U. S. AT TIME OF ORGANIZATION

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Sidney Winslow, president of the United Shoe Machinery Co., testified under cross examination, that the United Shoe Machinery Co., now on trial in the district court here as an unlawful monopoly, had acquired at the time of its organization in 1899 control of all but one of the lasting machines made in the United States. This one machine was acquired the following year, he said.

He also admitted that the company at the same time acquired control of all the best wetting, heating and metal fastening machines used in shoe manufacturing. Other heating and metal fastening machines were on the market at that time but what he considered to be the best of them were acquired by the United, he said, to broaden its field by adding them to its line of wetting and lasting machines.

At this point, Judge Putnam, who is presiding at the trial with Judges Dodge and Brown, inquired whether the court could go into the question of the legality of the formation of the company. The United States supreme court had decided, he said, earlier in the case on original combination by which the company was formed was legal.

Attorney James A. Fowler, representing the prosecution, said that the decision of the supreme court was upon the pleadings and not upon the facts. Judge Putnam said Mr. Fowler was right and that the court would go into the whole question.

RULING FOR INSTITUTION

Court Sustains Denial of Free Home For Consumptives to Attorney General's Charges

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A decree was entered in supreme court yesterday by Judge Sheldon sustaining the denial of the Free Home for Consumptives to an information in the nature of quo warranto brought by the attorney general, alleging in substance that there has been an abandonment of the corporate franchise of the home and also that there have been various acts of misuse or abuse of the corporate privileges.

The attorney general has been given another opportunity by the court to amend his bill if he so desires.

WHITEHOUSE'S LAST TERM

United States District Attorney Deglan to Lay Evidence Before Federal Court at Portland

PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 10.—The December term of the United States District court began yesterday. Judge Clarence Hale presiding, Marcellus W. Stearns of Lowell was appointed foreman.

District Atty. Robert Treat Whitehouse and his assistant, Arthur Chapman, at once began to lay their evidence in numerous cases before the jurors. This is the last term of Mr. Whitehouse as district attorney and he will, it is expected, be succeeded by Stephen C. Perry of this city.

His associates will be Jonkhoeer Alexander Frederik de Savornin Lohman, Dutch minister of state and Dr. C. Latry, Swiss minister to France.

Kill Catarrh Germ Use Booth's Hyomei

Try the sure and most effective way to reach the raw, tender, inflamed mucous membrane infested with catarrh germs—breathe Hyomei. All druggists sell it.

You cannot reach the nooks and crevices of the breathing organs with liquid preparations; there is only one way—breathe a few times daily the germ-destroying air of Booth's Hyomei. It acts directly on the inflamed membranes and destroys the catarrhal germs.

If you suffer from offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, spasmodic coughing, or any other symptoms of catarrh, use Hyomei at once. It will destroy the disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs, and give quick and permanent relief, or money refunded by Carter & Sherburne.

The complete outfit including pocket inhaler and bottle of liquid costs $1.00, extra bottles of liquid if later needed, 50 cents.

"IDEAL" FIRELESS

Cook Stove

Lined with solid, heavy aluminum—famous "Wear-Ever" brand—not something that looks like it. Aluminum is the only satisfactory lining for fireless cookers. Other materials rust, corrode, crack, chip, flake or peel—destroy cookers—make work, bother and expense. Aluminum is the 11 karat gold of kitchen ware.

The "Ideal" is made in one, two and three compartments—ten sizes. Saves 50% fuel—saves food—work and worry. Come in and see it.

RECOUNT IN LAWRENCE

REQUESTED BY EX-MAYOR WHITE, WHO WAS DEFEATED BY 152 VOTES BY MAYOR SCANLON

LAWRENCE, Dec. 10.—The recount of the votes cast for mayor in yesterday's city election requested by ex-Mayor William White, who was defeated by 152 votes by Mayor Michael A. Scanlon will be held at city hall tomorrow.

Pending the recount the ballot boxes are being guarded by two police officers.

ATTACKED EDITOR

Rep. Giblein Pleaded Guilty in Superior Court Today

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A plea of guilty of assault on James D. McGuire, a newspaper editor, was entered in the superior court today by Representative Thomas J. Giblein of East Boston, who had appealed from his conviction and jail sentence of two months imposed by the municipal court. Chief Justice Allen will sentence Giblein later. The assault on McGuire was the outgrowth of a political disagreement.

MAN WAS ASPHYXIATED

WAS FOUND DEAD IN BOSTON LODGING HOUSE TODAY—COMPANION CRITICALLY ILL

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Dominico Grota was found dead from gas poisoning in a North End lodging house today. His companion, Gregorio Sarlo, was in a critical condition. It is believed that the gas was improperly turned off when the men retired last night.

EXCITED BY TWO-CENT FIRE

Apparatus and Crowd Rush to Old South Corner, But Motorman Put in New Fuse and Goes His Way

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A large force of five apparatus and nearly 100 firemen responded to an alarm from Washington and Milk streets shortly before 9 o'clock last night for a fire that caused a damage estimated at two cents. A crowd quickly gathered and a detail of policemen from the Court square station had a busy five minutes getting the traffic tangled straightened out.

The excitement started when a fuse on an outward bound Roxbury Crossing car blew out with a loud noise and a little flame and smoke. An excited man sent in an alarm at once.

When District Chief Fox and Engine 4 and Chemical 1 arrived, the first apparatus to reach the scene, Motorman Thomas Concanan was just finishing the insertion of a new fuse. Without waiting to give the firemen and police any information as to the fire, the car crew started on toward Roxbury Crossing.

CONDEMNNS INSTITUTION WINES

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The Catholic clergy and the German government joined forces today in condemning institution wines. The Catholic bishop of Wurzburg issued an edict to the clergy of his diocese warning them against the use of "cheap and most deceptive substitutes for wine" in the communion, and at the same time the government announced it was about to assist the winegrowers in making restrictive regulations concerning so-called temperance drinks.

NEW REMEDY SAVES OLD FOLKS FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weakness, Backache, Stiff Joints, Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Dozes Are Taken

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can easily avoid the tortures of backache and rheumatism, and be saved the annoyance of getting up at night with disagreeable bladder disorders.

Croxone promptly overcomes all such troubles by making the kidneys filter the blood properly and sift out the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up, inactive kidneys, dissolves and drives out the uric acid and other poisonous impurities that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause rheumatism. It neutralizes the urine so it no longer irritates the bladder, overcoming unnecessary breaking of sleep and helps the kidneys and bladder regain health and strength.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what else you have used, it is practically impossible to take this quick-acting, effective preparation without immediate results. It starts to work the minute you take it—the first time you use it. An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

Warm Rooms

Do you have them? The bath room the first thing in the morning, the kitchen and all others Buy a "Perfection Oil Heater" and any room can be made comfortable in no time; it will warm up the cold corners, keep the old folks comfortable and you too. AGAINST LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Crowd of 2000 Anti-Saloon Men and Women Storm Capitol and Demand National Prohibition

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Under the dome of the capitol 2000 men and women representing the Anti-Saloon League of America and the Women's Christian Temperance union assembled today for a demonstration against the liquor traffic. In two phalanxes, the men and women marched from the downtown streets of the city to the east front of the capitol. Each bore petitions demanding national prohibition by constitutional amendment. On the steps of the capitol the petitions were received by Representative Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, author of such a proposed amendment and by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The legislators also received from a special committee of the anti-liquor forces a copy of another resolution suggested to forever prohibit the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors except for sacramental and medicinal purposes.

In their march to the capitol the Anti-Saloon league forces were led by Brig.-Gen. A. S. Daggett. Mrs. Lillian N. Stevens of Maine, president-general of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, marshalled the women who waved banners as they paraded down Pennsylvania avenue. Following the presentation of petitions, which were filed in the senate and house, prohibition speeches were made. On the speakers' program were Ernest H. Cherrington of Westville, O., former Gov. M. R. Patterson of Tennessee, Miss Ella Boule of Brooklyn, president of the New York State W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Mary Harris Arner of Georgia.

PROSECUTIONS DROPPED

Last of Indictments Growing Out of Austin Dam Disaster In 1911 Not Prosecuted

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 10.—The last of the criminal prosecutions against officers of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company of Austin, Pa., growing out of a flood which devastated Austin, Sept. 30, 1911, destroying 80 lives and $3,000,000 in property, were not prosecuted yesterday.

Private prosecutors presented petitions requesting the step on the ground that they believed there could be no conviction of the defendants for voluntary manslaughter under the facts in the case.

Settlements of the civil actions for damages against the company opened the way for securing the consent of the private prosecutors to drop the criminal cases.

THE KIEV MURDER

Time Limit for an Appeal Against Verdict Expired Today

KIEV, Russia, Dec. 10.—The time limit expired today for an appeal against the verdict of acquittal in the recent sensational trial of Mendel Beiles on the charge of murdering Andrew Yushinsky for purposes of blood ritual. The law allows a period of 15 days in which to appeal after the promulgation of the verdict and as the public prosecutor did not take advantage of this the judgment became absolute automatically.

CHILD LABOR LAW

Vigorous Enforcement at Pittsburgh—Girls Sent Home

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—Vigorous enforcement of the child labor law enacted by the late legislature was continued throughout the city today. Proprietors of restaurants, hotels, clubs and department stores were notified by representatives of the bureau of state factory inspection that all women under 21 years must cease work at 9 o'clock at night and the provisions relating to boys must be followed closely. Two merchants were arrested and fined last night. All girls within the age limit were sent home from the theatres where they were employed. Factories have been observing the law for several months.

MRS. DIGNOWITY WEDS

WOMAN WHO ELOPED WITH RICHEST STUDENT IN HARVARD AND LATER DIVORCED, MARRIES

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Mrs. James Y. Dignowity, Jr., whose elopement with young Dignowity, then known as the richest student in Harvard university, created a sensation in Greater Boston seven years ago, is now Mrs. John E. McCanna. The facts of the wedding, which took place in a private suite at the Hotel Somerset on the afternoon of Oct. 8 last without even the clerk in the hotel knowing of it, became known yesterday.

A few of the immediate relatives of the young couple were present, the ceremony being performed by Robert M. McLeish of 394 K street, South Boston, Justice of the peace.

Mrs. Dignowity and McCanna had been fast friends for a number of years. It had been reported on several occasions that they either were married or were about to be. Every time these rumors reached the ears of the young couple they denied them emphatically.

Since the marriage Mr. and Mrs. McCanna have been living in a handsomely appointed apartment at 2 Hammond terrace, Allston.

The marriage return filed at the Boston registry contains these facts: John E. McCanna, 23, single, of 1426 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, real estate broker born in Boston and son of Edward P. and Catherine Maguire-McCanna, was married at Boston on Oct. 8, 1913, to Marion W. Dignowity, nee Whittemore, divorced, of Brookline, no occupation, born in Cambridge and daughter of Mr. John St. C. Whittemore and Fannie Burne-Whittemore.

"FOR GOD'S SAKE QUIT"

BUTTE, MONT., JUDGE APPEALS TO WOMEN IN COURT FOR DISTURBING THE PEACE

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 10.—"For God's sake, women, quit your fighting and go back to your meetings and try to act like loving sisters," Police Judge Bocher told several woman suffragists who were on trial before him charged with disturbing the peace when two factions clashed in an assembly hall and the police were called in. The women engaged in a hand to hand contest over the possession of the gavel. Judge Bocher dismissed the case, telling the defendants it would be useless so far as any good to the community were concerned to fine them and that he was thunderstruck that education and refined women of Butte could meet in social sessions without fist fighting.

SUIT AGAINST R. H. DIRECTORS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 10.—Judge Walter Sanborn of the United States circuit court is expected to decide within a few days possibly today, whether he will grant William Niles of New York permission to file a restitution suit against present and former directors of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad. Mr. Niles made application yesterday to file such a suit, claiming that certain present and former directors were responsible to the stockholders for losses incurred by the sale to the "Frisco" of feeder lines which they had promoted.

WILLS BUILT TO SON

Sec. Redfield's Mother Leaves Homestead in Pittsfield to Three of Her Daughters

—ST. PAUL, Dec. 10.—After leaving her homestead in Pittsfield, Mass., to three of her daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Redfield willed her Bible. "The gift of my husband, and the stand on which it rests," to her son, William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce. The will was probated here yesterday owing to the fact that Mrs. Redfield possessed local real estate.

The estate is valued at $125,000. Mary W. Redfield was made administratrix without bond.

SAFETY LAWS IMPERATIVE

Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce Addresses Steamboat Men

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce, speaking last night at the annual banquet of the Association of Passenger Steamboat Lines, said that the marine interests, both on the deep seas and in interior waters, must more and more adjust themselves to the improved industrial conditions existing and to exist on land.

He added that both the steamboat companies and the travelling public must have confidence in the government steamboat inspection service and that the department must insist firmly on obedience to all laws relating to safety of passengers.

Capt. George A. White, president of the association, T. F. Newman and D. C. McIntyre of Cleveland also spoke. Capt. White spoke on the "Significance of the Seamen's Union Bill" which has passed the senate and is now before the house committee. He declared that if it passed it would put a majority of the companies in the association entirely out of business.

A Novel Free Holiday Spectacle

On the Second Floor of Our Main Store Representing a Christmas Fair

In Old Nuremberg

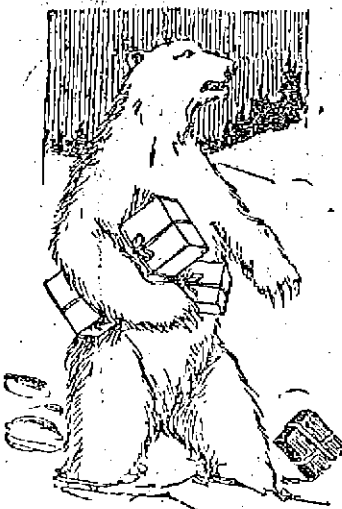

Nothing Like This Ever in New-England

One of the most beautiful and interesting Christmas spectacles ever shown in Boston is the real German Christmas Village Costume Fair in Old Nuremberg which has been transported to a portion of the second floor in our Main Store.

Once inside the gates of Old Nuremberg you will imagine yourself in some quaint old German village of the eighteenth century. There are the ancient buildings, the open village square where the fair is in progress. There, too, are the village maidens, in their odd looking Nuremberg peasant costumes, ready to serve you and tell you all about the hundreds of attractions at their fair. Do not fail to see Old Nuremberg—it is entirely free.

The Greatest Feature of This Christmas Fair The Six Performing Polar Bear Brothers

BIG BROTHER BEAR

The great feature of the Fair, in Old Nuremberg, the chief show of all the shows at the fair, is given by the six performing

Polar Bear Brothers

who have brought down their wonderful Shop of Christmas Prize Package Toys direct from the North Pole. These are not real live Polar Bears, you know, but you will almost believe they are alive when you see them.

No child need be afraid of the Polar Bear Brothers! They love little children, and now let us tell you exactly what they do.

Mystery Packages for 25c.

Each boy or girl who visits Old Nuremberg on the Second Floor of the Main Store has the right to buy a Prize Package Toy for 25 cents from the Polar Bears.

Big Bear Takes the Money

First he hands his quarter to the Big Brother Bear, and this sets the mechanism in motion. Big Brother Bear waves a signal to the Little Brother Bears, way up near the big iceberg. The mysterious prize package drops out of a cave in the iceberg into a tray held by the first Polar Bear, who passes it to the next Bear and he in turn to another Bear—and so it comes down the line from the Northland to the last Big Brother Bear, who gives it to the boy or girl who paid for it.

Both Boys and Girls

No indeed, you don't know what you are going to get until you open it—that's the best part of the fun. But you are sure to get a fine 25c. toy—well worth the price—for a Girl, if a Girl buys it, and if a Boy gives the quarter, then it will be a Toy for a Boy. You will see what good judgment the Polar Bear Brothers use in their selection of these prize toys for Boys and Girls!

How to see the Polar Bears

The only way to see the Six Polar Bear Brothers is to visit the Fair in Old Nuremberg Village. The only entrance to Old Nuremberg is from the Second Floor of the Main Store, in the section formerly occupied by the untrimmed millinery, which has been moved over with the trimmed millinery till after Christmas.

Christmas Gifts at the Fair

Of course, there is no end of Christmas merchandise at The Fair in Old Nuremberg—that's what a Christmas Fair is for, isn't it! The saleswomen and girls are all dressed in the picturesque costumes of Old Nuremberg.

A PRETTY NUREMBERG GIRL

Among the things sold at the Fair are:

Jewelry
Baskets Aprons
Girdles Handkerchiefs
Musical Instrument Toys
Novel Mechanical Toys
Dainty Gifts for Baby
Tom Smith Stockings (filled)
Nighties for Men and Boys

Largest Toy Store in Boston

Remember, The Christmas Fair at Old Nuremberg is separate and distinct from our Big Toy Store. It's an entirely different show, in a different building. Old Nuremberg is in the Main Store on the Second Floor.

The Big Toy Store, the largest Toy Store in New England, is in the New Building on the Third Floor. There you will find the real live Santa Claus, the Doll that Swims, the Leaping Tiger, the big Doll Houses and thousands of other toys.

ELECTION RESULTS

The referendum providing for the promotion of call men to the permanent force was overwhelmingly endorsed by the voters and that is as it should be. The act provides that a man who has been a call man for years is not required to take a civil service examination for promotion to the permanent position. It was necessary for him to take an examination for call men and it did not seem necessary that at the end of five years he should be called upon to take another examination. This referendum was endorsed by a vote of 5418 to 3453.

The voters also endorsed the referendum having to do with compensation of public employees for injuries. This is an act to provide for compensating laborers, workmen and mechanics for injuries sustained in public employment, and to exempt from legal liability counties and municipal corporations which pay such compensation. This was endorsed by a vote of 5422 to 3063.

The Mayor and Mr. Barrett
Mayor O'Donnell and Commissioner Barrett were on deck this morning, bright and early, at city hall and that they both take their defeat philosophically was evidenced by their every act and word.

The mayor sent the following congratulatory note to the mayor-elect:

Dennis J. Murphy, Esq.,
I accept my congratulations on your success, and my best wishes for a prosperous administration.
Sincerely,
James E. O'Donnell.

To The Sun: Thomas C. Commissioner Barrett said: "I wish you would say to the 5124 voters who supported me at the polls yesterday that I am deeply grateful to them. I want to say, too, that I have no feeling over the result, and I wish my successor the greatest measure of success."

Unlimited Bets Offered
Never, perhaps, on any election was there so much looking for takers than in yesterday's election on Mr. Murphy's success. It was offered in amounts varying from $100 to $500 since last Thursday and the O'Donnell forces made an effort to take up part of it but with little success.

There are conjectures as to where the money came from but the unseen hand that furnished it was one of the secrets of the campaign.

The French-American vote of course, played a leading part in the political drama of yesterday. The O'Donnell forces rather held to the opinion that the French vote, so called, would be about equally divided. They did not think that the "consolidation" vote, the last Sunday afternoon meeting of the mayoralty candidates was concerned. According to yesterday's vote, however, it would seem that the political compact was pretty largely adhered to.

Then again it would appear that the voters decided that a one two-year term is enough and this is very substantially endorsed by the fact that all three men up for reelection this year went down to defeat. Commissioner Cummings in the primaries, and the mayor and Commissioner Barrett yesterday.

George H. Brown and James E. Donnelly came up for reelection a year ago and went through with flying colors but it must be remembered that they had been originally elected for only one year. It remains to be seen how successful they will be in pleading their causes next year if they decide to run.

At City Hall
There wasn't a great deal of enthusiasm at city hall last night and in all truth it was a very tame election, one that it must be remembered that they had been originally elected for only one year. It remains to be seen how successful they will be in pleading their causes next year if they decide to run.

THE NEW CEMENT BRIDGE OVER THE WAMESIT CANAL ON LAWRENCE ST.

If the weather continues fair the work of widening Lawrence street and the Lawrence street bridge will be completed in a few days. The bridge, which is of concrete and steel construction, spans the Wamesit canal and the bridge work was done by the Wamesit Power Co. The expense of the work will be shared by that company, the city, the Bay State Street railway company and the Boston & Maine railroad. In order to widen the street it was necessary for the city to acquire about 400 square feet of land and the Wamesit Power Co. through Barker Ames, gave the city 250 square feet, gratis. About 125 square feet was purchased from Caroline A. Dean and Sarah J. Robinson for 15 cents a foot. These two women occupied a house that was in the way and they agreed to allow the city to move the house on condition that the city would foot the bill and allow them for their land and whatever inconvenience they might be put to. The house will be moved back about eight feet and the moving will take place this week.

minutes later the paper was on the street with the election totals for every candidate. The papers sold rapidly as everybody was astounded to find a paper on the street giving complete returns practically three hours after the polls closed.

There was a vast number of people on the streets last night and all appreciated the rapidity with which The Sun gave them the returns, not only on the canvas but in the special edition.

Ovation to Mayor-Elect

Mayor O'Donnell and Mayor-elect Murphy met at the Yerk club last night and both made brief speeches. The mayor was both jolly and witty and he convinced everybody present that he was losing with good grace.

The mayor-elect was a very busy man from the moment that precinct figures made plain his election. The first reception tendered him was at his home in Astor street, when a crowd of his supporters gathered there and insisted upon taking him in an automobile down town and through the principal streets to Central street, Merrimack square and city hall. The mayor-elect made a speech at the squares thanking all those who had supported him.

Mr. Murphy, during the evening, was enthusiastically greeted at the new quarters of the Lowell council, Knights of Columbus, in Anne street, and at the Washington club. He made short addresses in both places.

Town Postal Employees Do Not Take Kindly to Parcel Post—Will Be Worse Under 50-Pound Limit

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Dec. 10.—Many resignations in the rural mail carrier service in southeastern Iowa are reported on account of the increase of the parcel post business.

Persons connected with the service predict wholesale resignations if the 50-pound maximum for packages, recommended by the postmaster general, is adopted. The department is said to be finding it difficult to get men to take the places of those who have resigned.

AUSTRIAN PARLIAMENT

VIENNA, Austria, Dec. 10.—Such a din was created by the Ruthenian deputies in the Austrian imperial parliament today that the sitting was suspended by the speaker. For over an hour the Ruthenians as a protest against the alleged passive attitude of the government in the matter of electoral reform blew shrill whistles and bagpipes, rang electric bells and trumpeted with motor horns at the same time wronching the lids from their desks and beating the pieces furiously together. The trouble began when one of the Ruthenians proposed the adjournment of the house as a mark of his disapproval of the government policy.

DEATHS

ROBERTS—Charles G. Roberts died yesterday afternoon at the Lowell hospital, aged 37 years. He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Roberts. The body was removed to his home, 1040 Lakeview avenue.

MOYLAN—Died in this city, Wednesday, Dec. 10, at his late home, 116 Graham street, Martin Moylan, aged 56 years. He is survived by five sons, Thomas F., James E., John J., Charles and William Moylan; one daughter, Mrs. John B. Murphy; and four grandchildren.

FUNERALS

STANLEY—The funeral services of Mrs. Mary E. Stanley were held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Blake, 124 Shaw street. Rev. Ernest A. Tilles of the Chelmsford Street Baptist church officiated. The bearers were Messrs. Arthur Marshall, Arthur J. Moller, Frank H. Counter and Henry W. McDonald. There were many beautiful flowers and burial was in the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker John A. Venable.

MORGAN—The funeral of Levin O. Morgan took place yesterday from the home of his sister, Mrs. William A. McEvoy, 101 Tenth street, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. C. A. Lincoln of the Kirk Street church, where the ritual of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was conducted by a delegation from Bunker Hill lodge. The bearers were D. W. Porter, A. H. Deane, George E. Connor and George C. Murray. Among the many beautiful flowers were pieces from the following: Daughter, Ladies circle; Bunker Hill lodge of Lowell; Mrs. McGrath, Mrs. W. A. McEvoy, Mr. Leonard, the Misses Emma and Gertrude Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Snow. Burial was in the family lot in the West Chelmsford cemetery, under the direction of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

CASHMAN—The funeral of Mrs. Mary (Lacey) Cashman took place this morning at 8.30 o'clock from her late home, 2 Carmine street and wended its way to the Sacred Heart church, where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O. M. I.

There was a profusion of beautiful and appropriate floral offerings showing the esteem in which the deceased was held by her many friends and acquaintances, among them being pieces from the following: The family, Miss Della Lacey and Mr. Michael Lacey, Misses Nora and Annie Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. James Gookin, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Crowley, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Richards. The bearers were Messrs. James Maguire, Joseph Cashman, James Kilmarlin, Timothy Mack, John Deolin and Dennis Crowley. The funeral proceeded to St. Patrick's cemetery, burial being in the family lot, where the committal prayers were read at the grave by the Rev. Bernard Fletcher, O. M. I. The funeral was largely attended and under the direction of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

A FOUR-TENEMENT HOUSE, A COTTAGE AND ABOUT 5273 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 25 AND 27 SMITH STREET

On the premises regardless of any condition of the weather I shall offer for absolute sale the above property. The four tenement house is located at Nos. 25 and 27 Smith street has four rooms with each tenement and rents for $7 a month per tenement. The cottage in the rear has two rooms and rents for $5 per month making a total yearly rental for both of $132. The lot which has a frontage of about 57 1/2 feet on Smith street and an extreme depth of about 104 feet, contains about 5273 square feet. The location is excellent for the renting of small tenements, it being near so many industries in this part of the city. The property is absolutely free and clear and the present owner will take a mortgage back of 75 per cent. at 6 per cent. if the purchaser so desires. The present owner's only reason for disposing of the property is that he has not the time to look after real estate. Now then, here is a golden opportunity for someone who has a little money to make a start. Smith street is located between Branch and Westford streets. Terms $250 to be deposited with the auctioneer as soon as struck off. Make all inquiries of the auctioneer who has full charge.

MRS. BROWN WINS HER SUIT

Judge Chamberlain Orders That Commissioner George H. Brown Must Pay His Wife $38 a Month
Alimony in Separation Suit

In the case of Emma V. Brown vs. Commissioner George H. Brown, the court has ordered that the respondent, Mr. Brown, pay to the petitioner, Mrs. Brown, $25 forthwith; $13 the first Saturday of every month and $20 on the third Saturday of every month.

Mrs. Brown petitioned the probate court for separate support, alleging that her husband failed, without just cause, to provide her with suitable support and that she was living apart from him for justifiable cause.

In the probate court at Boston Judge Chamberlain gave a hearing on the petition on December 3 and 4. After having heard all of the evidence Judge Chamberlain took the matter under advisement and said he would report his findings today. The findings were filed this forenoon.

It will be remembered that Mr. Brown testified at the hearing that he was drawing only $100 a month; the balance of his salary of $2500 a year going to an assignee.

Two Auto Loads of Chinese Pass-

One of the most daring, as well as the most successful cases of smuggling Chinese laborers into this country, which the Canadian border has overseen was discovered early this morn-automobiles, seemingly equipped for this very purpose, stopped at Merri-

DEFENDANT WINS

In Case of Hammond
vs. Wheelock—Suit Against Buxboro

A verdict for the defendant was reported in the case of E. G. Hammond vs. Howard Wheelock, both of Groton, at the opening of superior court this morning. The plaintiff sued to recover for damages alleged to have been sustained while driving a dump-cart owned by the defendant. He, the plaintiff, was thrown from the seat and seriously injured.

The next case called, was that in which the town of Peppercell sues the town of Buxboro for expenses incurred while taking care of a pauper who has a legal settlement in the latter town.
It is claimed by the plaintiff that Estella Palmer, sometimes known as Estella Palmer, became a pauper while a resident of Peppercell. The officers of the latter town furnished her relief as a pauper from April 1, 1911 to November 27, 1911 and also paid expenses for nursing. It is claimed that the said Estella Palmer has not a legal settlement in the town of Peppercell but that the officers of the poor of Peppercell have notified the officers of Buxboro that Estella Palmer was supported as a pauper at the expense and charge of said town of Peppercell.

and have demanded said expenses so incurred of the defendant but the latter have failed to pay any part of the sum spent by the plaintiff, F.
C. Hayes for the defendant and F. H.
Stewart for the defendant.

The case was given to the jury early this afternoon.

SWALLOWED POISON BY MISTAKE
Grace Dubuque, 19 years of age, and residing with her mother, Mrs. Helene Dubuque, 307 West Sixth street, took poison by mistake last night at her home, but fortunately the liquid had no serious effect. When it was found that the young woman had taken poison a call for a couple of physicians was sent in but successful treatment was given Miss Dubuque before the doctors arrived.

According to the young woman, who was seen by the writer this noon, at about seven o'clock last night she was troubled with toothache, and her mother advised her to use some of the toothache drops that were in a closet.
With the bottle of medicine was another bottle containing iodine and Miss Dubuque took the iodine instead of the toothache drops. She poured some of it in her mouth and was treating her tooth when her brother saw the poison label on the bottle.
He rushed to his sister and pulled the bottle from her hand so quickly that the young woman in her surprise swallowed the poison which was in her mouth.

Another city election has come and gone, leaving behind a few changes in the personnel of our city government. That the voters would have a change was demonstrated at the polls when the mayor and commissioner who have served two years and who were up for re-election were completely snowed under. Dennis J. Murphy was elected mayor by the sweeping majority of 2101 and Commissioner Andrew E. Barrett finished low man in a field of four, receiving 2202 votes less than was given him two years ago.

The majority vote was as follows:
Murphy, 7899; O'Donnell, 5498. Two years ago O'Donnell polled 5202 votes as against 6249 for his opponent, Col.
Percy Parker.

The two new commissioners for 1914 are Col. James H. Carmichael and Charles J. Morse. Two new members have been elected to the school committee, Edmund T. Simpson and Wilfred P. C. Caisse, Jr. All of the four candidates for the school board re-ceivedattering votes as will be seen by the city election table. All of the candidates were very popular and while the friends of Mr. Reilly and Dr.
McGreevy were disappointed because of the failure of their men to land, yet they found consolation in the fact that these men were not defeated because of any inferiority to those elected, but rather because of a political trade.

Carmichael Broke State
Col. James H. Carmichael proved himself the phenomenal vote getter of former years. Mr. Carmichael did not conduct a strenuous campaign as did others of the candidates. He did very little before the primaries and took things comparatively easy afterward. His election campaign consisted of a little speech making and some very good advertising.

Charles J. Morse feels justly proud of the magnificent support accorded him, receiving 1931 votes more than the winner of second place, Col. Carmichael. Mr. Duncan polled 2152 votes and Mr. Barrett 5124. It was Col. Carmichael who broke the fusion slate and defeated Mr. Duncan.

The vote for the four commissioners elected two years ago was as follows:
Lawrence Cummings, 5462; Andrew E.
Barrett, 7128; James E. Donnelly, 6550;
George H. Brown, 6551. For school committee two years ago, Edmund T.
Simpson received 5345 votes, he being the only candidate at that time to be on the ballot yesterday and his vote of yesterday exceeded his vote of two years ago by nearly 2000.

To a great many the mayor's defeat was not as great a surprise as that of Commissioner Barrett. For several days before the election the voter had to be pretty optimistic to see the O'Donnell end of it, while only in a few places did one hear anything that sounded like the downfall of Barrett.
Both the mayor and Mr. Barrett put up strenuous campaigns. Mr. Barrett was not attacked as bitterly and naturally as was the mayor, but Barrett went back at his critics with a vengeance that made them wince, while the mayor seemed disposed to be very easy with them. He seemed to feel that they did not know what they were talking about and because of that fact he was willing to forgive them.

Barrett, on the other hand, was aggressive at every point and, as the boys say, captured a good many "goals."

Vote for License
Lowell voters were very emphatic as to their decision to remain in the wet column for they registered a very strong "yes" on the license question.
The yes vote this year being over 300 stronger than last year. The city one year ago, went license 7100 to 5040.
Yesterday the city went license by a vote of 8669 to 8378.

FELL FROM AUTO

Ten-Year Old Lad Was Stealing a Ride and Came to Grief

Christian Gunther, about 10 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Gunther of Unland street, Dracut, suffered a bad accident this morning, when he fell off an automobile owned and operated by Selectman Walter F. Garland of Dracut.

According to some of the boys who were around the scene of the accident, which was in Daley street, the boy climbed on the running board of the automobile. After riding a short distance, the boy lost his hold and was thrown forcibly to the ground, sustaining painful injuries to face and body. He was picked up in a semiconscious condition and removed to the home of his parents, where Dr. Johnson gave him medical attendance. Those who witnessed the accident exonerate
Mr. Garland of all blame, for they say he did not know the boy was on the running board, and also that his auto was not going at a high rate of speed.

SURVEY OF MERRIMACK STRIKER SHOT

Congressman Rogers Again Meets Engineers of War Dept. With Reference to Our Waterway

Congressman Rogers has recently again been in conference with the engineers of the war department at Washington with reference to the progress of the government survey of the Merrimack river now being made under the direction of Col. J. O. Mills, U. S. A. Through the courtesy of the chief of engineers, Congressman Rogers was enabled to examine the report of Col. Mills upon the present status of the work. Col. Mills reports that the field work of the survey is now in progress and that sounding has been completed throughout about nine miles of the river bed down stream from Ward Hill, Haverhill. During the month of October, the last full calendar month for which a report has up to this time been made, the survey was actively prosecuted and about five and one-half miles of the total nine miles above mentioned was completed. It is understood that the hearings are to be begun immediately and that they will be continued through such part of the winter as the condition of the ice permits. Either an open river or a river covered with solid ice will not prevent the carrying on of the work, but the latter condition, or even so thick ice as to prevent the passage of boats, but not thick enough to support the workers, will necessitate a suspension. The only disturbing feature of the report was the statement of Col. Mills that the probable date of completion was Sept. 20, 1914. This date, as Mr. Rogers points out, will be too late, assuming a favorable report on the general navigability of the river, to secure action by the present session of congress and would thus delay legislation at least a year. Mr. Rogers therefore asked the engineers to direct Col. Mills to forward to them a special report indicating the causes why so great a time must elapse and stating if it would not be possible to shorten it materially. This the engineers have agreed to do and to inform Mr. Rogers promptly when word is received from Col. Mills.

During Attack Made on Auto Van Loaded With Strikebreakers

LAWRENCE, Dec. 10.—During an attack made by several men, said to be striking firemen, on an auto van loaded with strikebreakers and detectives, William Townsend, of 34 Manchester street, said to be a striker, was shot by someone either on or near the truck. The bullet passed through Townsend's clothing and grazed the abdomen.

The van was carrying the strikebreakers to their boarding house, and at the corner of Canal and Franklin streets the conveyance was attacked with stones and other missiles. Someone in the crowd dislodged the door of the car from the seat and threw it into the street. Shots are reported to have been fired from the van, one of which struck Townsend. This has the effect of scattering the crowd, and Townsend sought the aid of a physician, who found the bullet inside of Townsend's clothing.

The matter was reported to the police, and several inspectors were assigned to investigate. It is thought the strikers' party will be questioned in the public tomorrow in connection with the shooting, as he is alleged to have admitted firing his pistol into the van.

WALSH BALKS GOV. FOSS

GOVERNOR-ELECT DEFIES RAILROAD AND BANK INTERESTS IN HIS APPOINTMENTS

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Governor-elect Walsh has taken a positive stand against the control of the public utilities commission by the railroad and banking interests.

He has refused to reappoint any man named by Gov. Foss to the board to succeed Commissioner Bishop. There is a very interesting story connected with this matter.

It seems that about a week ago Gov. Foss personally visited the governor-elect and put before him a proposition which involved the appointment of a new man to the railroad board. Commissioner Bishop, to be reappointed, was given a position in the inspection service.

The term of Commissioner Bishop expires in June. Representatives of banking interests were keen to have Mr. Bishop appointed to a minor position and to have a democrat appointed to succeed him by Gov. Foss.

The plan was to appoint a democrat who would not be antagonistic to the railroad interests and who could be reappointed in June.

Gov. Foss turned down the proposition flat. He said that he intended to make his own choice for the railroad board to succeed Commissioner Bishop and that any man who would accept an appointment at present from Gov. Foss would obviously handpick himself.

The answer returned by Mr. Walsh was a direct ultimatum to the New Haven interests. There was a conference last night between Gov. Foss and Chairman Macleod of the railroad board over the matter.

It seems that the banking interests are very much opposed to George W. Anderson on the board, and they are afraid that another man of his type will be appointed.

It now appears that because of Mr. Walsh's refusal to "take care" of Commissioner Bishop the plan advanced has fallen through. The only name suggested to date for the appointment to succeed Commissioner Bishop is that of Congressman Andrew J. Peters.

There is considerable feeling among the supporters of Gov. Walsh against the attempt on the part of Gov. Foss to dispose of appointments and to re-appoint department officials before he leaves office.

The conference between Gov. Foss and Chairman Macleod is said to have had much to do with three distinct things affecting the railroad situation. They are:

1. The suggested receivership of the Boston & Maine.

2. The selection of a railroad commissioner to take the place of Commissioner Bishop, who resigns, or who may stay until the expiration of his term, July 1, in case the governor does not presently find his successor.

3. The selection of counsel for the public service commission.

The most important matter is the receivership, which is now being discussed with great interest by railroad circles.

This is of some moment to Gov. Foss, who has been in consultation with Chairman Hill of the New Haven system and Senator Crane upon the matter of being appointed receiver himself in case the step is necessary.

As to the necessity of it only those closely in touch with the conditions in the Boston & Maine can say. It is said to be the opinion of the federal authorities that the receivership has not to come.

In that case it is felt that the presence of Mr. Foss at the head of the Boston & Maine would inspire much confidence. The governor himself was asked about the story, but he absolutely refused to discuss it or to say that it ever had been suggested to him.

The proposed resignation of Public Service Commissioner Bishop may now not take effect, because of the failure of Gov. Foss to secure the assent of Congressman Andrew J. Peters to be appointed to the commission.

Chairman Macleod of the commission and Commissioner Anderson favor the appointment of Arthur D. Hill as counsel for the commission, but the three other members of the commission do not favor the appointment.

This matter effects in a very material way the question whether Mr. Bishop is to remain on the commission or not. If he does remain it does seem that Mr. Hill will be the choice of the commission.

BRIDE MISSING YANKEE VOICE 4451 DESERTERS MAN EXECUTED

Woman Disappears With $192 While on Shopping Trip

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 10.—Mrs. Perley White of Bangor, 20 years old, disappeared from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyce, at 13 Willow street, last Saturday, and the police were asked yesterday to aid in a search for her. Mr. and Mrs. White were married Thanksgiving evening, and Mrs. Boyce believes her daughter has met with violence at the hands of a rejected suitor, who made threats on the night of the wedding, she says.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. White came to Bangor on business and visited Mrs. White's parents. White drew $192 from a local bank the next day and gave it to her wife to keep. She had it with her when she started down town shopping.

Mrs. Boyce says her daughter was happy in her marriage and is sure she should communicate with them were she able. She attributes her disappearance to the threats made by a rejected suitor but it was not until today that the police were appealed to.

Mrs. White is tall and slender with dark hair and blue eyes and a slight impairment in her speech. When she disappeared she was wearing a black hat and a blue suit over which she had on a machine and a red sweater.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring Back Its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is really a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, brightness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to have how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—take one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries it.

Reception to Bishop Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence at Boston Museum of Fine Arts Last Night

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Bishop William Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence were welcomed at a reception last night at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts at 24 Huntington avenue. It was one of a series of diocesan receptions which will represent the social side of the commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the bishop's consecration.

The occasion was a most remarkable one in at least two respects. It is estimated that fully 4000 Episcopalians from the Greater Boston portion of the diocese were in attendance. Also, the bishop was the first evering reception ever held in the new Museum of Fine Arts.

Is Not Nasal, Says Maud Scherer in Address Before Women's Club

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—"The Yankee voice is not nasal, but the very opposite," said Miss Maud Scherer of the Lowell Powers school to the surprise of the Jamaica Plain Women's club yesterday afternoon. She is addressing the women's club of the state on "Voice and Personal Culture," arguing that the voice is one of the greatest factors in personal magnetism.

She said "The Yankee voice" lacks the nasal resonance that makes for beauty, because it is given without having the nostrils well opened.

"But a good voice is inherent in everyone," she added, "listening to music is one of the best means of making the voice musical, for the same reason that people who live near the sea have something of the sea's mellow reverberation in their tones."

"Women ought all to pitch the voice lower when they have vital thoughts to express, otherwise their tones lack something of the sincerity that convinces. This is especially true in this age when women do so much public speaking."

"Often the voice is a revelation of the real character, but the one biggest flaw in a woman's voice is a seemingly sweet woman with a harsh voice alone a strain of asperity that may reside in her. But it is equally true that cultivating gracious tones makes for a feeling of graciousness. And pleasant tones affect not alone our well-being but that of others."

"To produce a voice that carries, one should breathe from the waist line. Nervousness can be controlled by just such breathing. A low pitch is easier to listen to than a high one, though one should go up and down the scale, and not speak in a monotone. Then to make the voice melodious the speaker should avoid tightening up her throat. Those who do so can tell it by the fact that their voices tire when reading aloud."

It would make everyone's voice better if one smiled while talking."

The board of supervisors has ordered the first payment of $50,000 on the Union street line.

From U.S. Army During Past Year—Loss in Strength

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—With its authorized strength increased by 3362 men, the United States army lost instead of gaining numbers during the fiscal year just closed, including the Philippine scouts, the army had 55,569 men, compared with 57,965 12 months before.

Adj. Gen. George Andrews, in his annual report, made public today, commented upon the fact that 80 per cent of the applicants for enlistment at recruiting stations were rejected while 14 per cent of those accepted at the recruiting stations subsequently were rejected at depots.

Desertions during the past year aggregated 4451.

ESTATE OF "BIG TIM"

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Counsel for Margaret Catherine Sullivan, 17 years old, yesterday obtained an order from the supreme court to compromise for $50,000 her claim against the estate of the late Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, the East Side Tammany leader who was killed by a train in the Bronx on August 24 while escaping from the home of his brother where he had been confined following a mental collapse. The papers filed with the court recite that Mary A. Holland, described as the guardian and mother of Margaret Catherine Sullivan, daughter of the late Timothy D. Sullivan, had made a settlement with the executor of Sullivan's estate. It had not previously been known that "Big Tim" as he was known, had a daughter with a claim against the estate.

Murderer of Policeman Was Executed at Auburn, N.Y. Today

AUBURN, N. Y., Dec. 10.—Nelson Sharp of Monroe county died in the electric chair today for the murder of Patrolman Francis Ford of the Rochester police, May 18, 1912. The murderer went unaided to his death. In a statement given out when he was taken to the execution chamber, Sharp admitted his guilt and professed deep regret. Drink, he said, was the cause of his killing Ford, to restore whom to life, he said, he would willingly die a hundred times. Sharp started a row in his boarding house. When Patrolman Ford entered to restore quiet, Sharp shot him to death.

Head-Work Wins

But mental activity is dependent for its success-making results, upon the way both body and brain cells are fed.

Right feeding isn't a matter of quantity—most persons actually eat too much. But the selection of the right kind of food helps wonderfully to make men and women active and successful.

The fact is, some every-day articles of food are so lacking in certain food values as to make their common use more or less a menace to physical and mental well-being. (Constipation and a run-down physical condition are readily traced to this lack.)

Particularly is this true of food made from white flour, which is robbed of most of the mineral phosphates of the grain when the bran-coat is thrown out in the milling process. Scientists have long recognized this menace to health, and many people are waking up to it.

SMUGGLERS HERE

over a dozen of the Mongolian fugitives in the two machines.

Officer John J. Sullivan, whose beat is at the square on the early night shift, was just making his way to the police station after being relieved when a powerful car, which he describes as having a very wide body, drew up in front of the Sun building. The driver of the car, who was bundled up in a huge fur coat with a fur cap drawn down over his eyes so low as to make his features indistinct, bent over the side of the car and asked the officer which was the shortest route to Salem by way of Reading.

The man's evident fear that he would approach the car and the unusual hour of the morning prompted Officer Sullivan to approach the car while giving the desired information. As soon as the driver saw the officer coming toward the machine he threw in his clutch and the car glided out of the square on its way to Salem.

Before the machine of the smugglers got under way, however, Officer Sullivan had come up so close to the car that he could look over the edge and get an accurate view of the interior.

Huddled Under Robes

Half hidden by fur robes and coverings of various descriptions nearly a dozen Chinamen lay huddled up in the spacious tonneau of the car. The machine was devoid of seats and the victims of the smugglers were lying in all sorts of uncomfortable positions, squirming about with each motion of the motor vehicle as though to get more room to stretch their cramped limbs in. Several of the Chinamen, who saw the officer's face when he thrust it suddenly over the edge of the car, set up a stringent squealing which was soon lost, however, in the whirl of the motor as the car was driven down East Merrimack street at a tremendous speed. It was plain to be seen that the occupants of the machine had no idea of being apprehended or even questioned as to their business.

Officers Sullivan's Work

While the puzzled officer, in the next few minutes, was trying to arrive at a logical deduction as to the motives and character of the strangers, a second machine came tearing into Merrimack square and this car also halted in front of the Sun building. The driver of this machine was not bundled as thoroughly as the chauffeur of the one which first aroused the officers' suspicions and Officer Sullivan saw immediately that he was a Chinaman.

The driver of the second car stopped destination of the smugglers if they in a great hurry, throwing on his had not been discovered by the Lowell brakes while the car was going at a high rate of speed. With the engine still throbbing and his machine just moving, he sang out to the patrolman in a voice which bore every trace of intense excitement, asking him the same identical question that the chauffeur of the first car had asked.

This time Officer Sullivan made a break for the car at the same time that he pointed toward East Merrimack street. Before he reached the second car and was able to obtain a foothold on the running board, the brakes had been slipped by the alert driver and with the suddenly applied power the large engine leaped ahead at breakneck speed in the wake of the first auto-load of smuggled Chinamen.

Saw Men Hiding

Before the car passed out of sight, however, the now thoroughly aroused officer saw the heads of two Chinamen lifted above the sides of the tonneau. The two yellow visages quickly vanished as though their owners had been drawn down to the floor of the car in great haste.

Officer Sullivan at once called up the police station and stated his exciting experience to Captain Atkinson, who has charge of the police department at night. The captain ordered the patrolmen to stand duty at the spot where the two machines had entered the square and to place under arrest any other suspicious machine.

Notified Federal Police

Captain Atkinson at once called up police headquarters in Boston and advised that the federal authorities be informed of the occurrences in this city. This was done with the result that the telephone lines between the Canadian border and Boston were soon hot with government officials' communications. The Boston branch of the particular department which deals with smuggling of all descriptions, learned from the officials on the Canadian border that a rumor had been spread to the effect that twenty Chinamen had been smuggled through their lines at a point just above the Thousand Islands. A detail of soldiers from the army post at that place had been sent out but nothing definite had been reported. When the Boston authorities called up the government detectives on the northern border had just about given up the search, thinking that the rumor was unfounded. Owing to the detailed descriptions furnished by Officer Sullivan, however, they now think that there is not the slightest doubt but what the story circulated there is true and that the two auto loads of Chinamen which passed through Lowell early this morning were smuggled over the Canadian line and have been driven into Massachusetts by night.

It is thought by the Boston authorities that Boston was doubtless the destination of the smugglers if they in a great hurry, throwing on his had not been discovered by the Lowell police but whether this fact will cause them to change their course, the officers cannot tell. The federal officers also think that this job was performed by an expert gang who have been making a business of smuggling Chinamen through the Canadian lines for over a year and have in many cases proved too elusive for the sleuths who guard Uncle Sam's territory in the vicinity of the St. Lawrence. It is very probable that a substantial reward will be offered for the capture of the gang as the government has been held at bay longer by this aggregation of crooks than is usual in such cases.

POLICE OF BOSTON AND OTHER CITIES NOTIFIED TO WATCH FOR SMUGGLERS

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—The police of Boston and surrounding cities and towns have been notified to keep a close watch for any strange Chinese who cannot show their papers. This movement resulted from the passing through Lowell early this morning of two automobiles filled with Chinamen. The driver of one of the cars stopped his machine on Merrimack street inquiring the road to Salem from a policeman. In the darkness the officer could scarcely distinguish those in the car but he directed them on their way, shortly afterward reporting the matter at the station. It is believed that the men were smuggled across the border near Montreal and run down to Boston.

Moore, for alleged injuries received by a fall on the sidewalk in Willie street, also filed claims for compensation, and they were also referred.

Daniel J. Leary filed a claim for $386.79 for steam and plumbing work, and his claim was also referred to the proper department. The mayor announced that at the next meeting he would present an order for the borrowing of $33,000 for the purchase of the park in West Centralville, but later the order was brought by the city solicitor and action was taken upon it with the result that the city clerk was instructed to give proper notice through the newspapers, and the matter was postponed for final action to Dec. 23. The tract of land contains 22.87 acres, and the money borrowed for its purchase is to be paid in 20 annual payments.

Inasmuch as several claims for compensation for personal injuries were received, the mayor suggested that a hearing be held purposely for those or any other claims that would be brought to the attention of the council and he suggested that the hearing be set for Friday night, but Commissioner Cummings could not see the light in the same way for he said a meeting of the "literary club" was scheduled for that night. Finally it was agreed to hold the hearing on Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

An order to install arc lights on Sparks and Parker streets was adopted. Another order calling for the sum of $1650 for the maintenance of the streets and highways of this city was presented and it was voted to transfer the said sum from the general treasury fund, for this money has already been paid to the general treasury fund by the New England Telephone Co., the Bay State Street Railway Co. and the Lowell Gas Light Co. for street repairs done by the street department. The meeting then adjourned to Monday evening.

him under arrest. The police are having a great many complaints on this particular sort of petty thieving and are making an effort to round up all of those who have formed the habit of taking papers from their neighbors' doorways. It is a great annoyance and although the intrinsic value of the stolen article is trifling the inconvenience often times is great. The case was continued until tomorrow morning.

Assault Case

The case of Joseph Landry, charged with drunkenness and assault and battery upon Harry Kronyinsky, came up on continuance today. The defendant pleaded guilty to drunkenness but professed innocence on the assault charge. It seems that the defendant is rather a noisy customer when drunk and that he also is troublesome. The evidence produced showed the court that Landry made himself about as obnoxious a possible with the complainant and also his own wife. Judge Knight stated that if he got what he deserved Landry would go to jail this morning. He gave the defendant a suspended sentence to the house of correction of four months, however.

Rode in Baggage Car

John J. Patterson, who told the court that his horse was in Boston and that he was a harness maker there, got very drunk and headed for Lowell in a baggage car. He was arrested upon his arrival here by Officer Dooley. He was very frank to admit his shortcomings and Judge Knight ordered his case placed on file after passing out some very good advice to him.

Sadie Reay was released with a suspended sentence to the house at Sherborn for women this morning upon her promise to reform. The case of William Sweeney, charged with a statutory offence, was continued until next Monday. The defendant said that he wished to procure counsel and the court readily agreed to a postponement for this purpose.

Lajoie, 122 Algon street; fish cart, Charles F. McOsker, 230 Hall street; billiards and pool, Guillo De Nicola, 314 Middlesex street.

The application of John G. Lee for a billiard and pool license at 181 Smith st. A remonstrance signed by a large number of residents of the vicinity was received and a hearing will be held December 16, at 3 o'clock.

The common victualer license of Wanda Jarek of 87 Lakeview avenue was cancelled.

Senate Leaders Hope to Secure Final Vote for Dec. 17

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A final vote on the currency bill in the senate Dec. 17 was the final goal to which senate leaders today bent their efforts. It was believed all speeches could be concluded early next week and that within a few days an arrangement can be made for a vote. The success of this plan would make it possible for congress to adjourn for the holidays.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION

The people having rendered their verdict in the selection of municipal officials—mayor, two aldermen and two members of the school board—all good citizens will accept the result as reflecting the popular will and, therefore, deserving of general support.

Mayor O'Donnell and Aldermen Barrett, the only two men who sought re-election, went down by an overwhelming vote against them. This cannot be taken as proof of anything seriously wrong in their administration for Mayor O'Donnell has been one of the best chief executives the city has ever had, while Mr. Barrett is an able and progressive official who accomplished a great deal in the departments of which he has control. The defeat of these men, like that of Mr. Cummings at the primaries, although he had kept well within his appropriation and conducted his departments in a very satisfactory manner, resulted, we believe, from a very general sentiment that two years is enough for any official. That slogan was probably the most effective used in the campaign against Mayor O'Donnell and Aldermen Barrett.

But there were other important factors, the chief of which were the splitting up of the democratic vote and the alliance of the republicans with the French in support of the same ticket. Colonel Carmichael was the only candidate who overcame these opposing elements which carried Mayor-elect Murphy, Mr. Morse, Mr. Caluso and Mr. Simpson on the combination tidal wave of victory.

In addition there was a great deal of misrepresentation of conditions in the police department as a result of the fact that Mayor O'Donnell gave much of his time and attention to the welfare and general affairs of the city at large rather than to the special work of his individual departments of public safety.

There was also an outcry against the borrowing of money and the financial conditions at city hall and now with a complete change of administration it is expected that there will be a radical change in this respect. The verdict of the people would seem to be decisive and conclusive on that point if on no other. There will doubtless be changes in the administrative heads and either a number of French citizens will be chosen or a great many anti-election promises will be broken.

One thing that must be gratifying to the outgoing officials, Mr. Cummings included, is that in all the mud slinging of the campaign and there was some of it very vile and filthy, not one word was uttered insinuating any dishonest act against Mayor O'Donnell or Aldermen Barrett or Cummings.

Mayor O'Donnell absolutely refused to descend to mud slinging, although he had in his hands sufficient material for the purpose with which to meet those who assailed him. He will go out of office with a clean reputation as well as Aldermen Barrett and Cummings, while it is hoped that the new officials who will take their places will bring about the improvements, moral and material, which they have promised in the condition of our city, which let us repeat is not one-twentieth part as bad as painted during the sensational campaign through which we have passed. Even the men who have been disappointed with the result of this election will rejoice to see a realization of the ideal condition pleaded by the mayor and aldermen-elect. We have been promised something in the nature of a municipal millennium, so haste this day!

DEPARTMENT REASSIGNMENTS

At the opening of the new year there must be a reassignment of departments among the members of the municipal council. The mayor gets his assignments to the departments of public safety by charter provision and as Mr. Morse has had long experience in street work, it would be well to put him in charge of the street department and transfer Mr. Donnelly to the building department. That would leave the fire and water departments for Col. Carmichael, assuming that Commissioner Brown will be allowed to remain in charge of the finance department, in which he has been such a conspicuous success.

DISTRIBUTION OF IMMIGRANTS

A plan recently formulated by Assistant Secretary Post of the labor department and about to be submitted to Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture has for its object the relief of the labor market by preventing its overcrowding with alien workmen; the relief of the immigrant who will be under the more direct guidance of the government; the relief of the farmer who by means of the new plan will be supplied with foreign labor with which to develop the agricultural resources of the country. While directly adhering to the purpose of the department of agriculture, which is the "welfare of the wage earners of the United States," this suggested innovation would incidentally solve one of the great problems of the vexatious immigration question.

If, instead of devoting their energies to the restriction of immigration, many of our leading politicians sought means to prevent immigrant congestion the result would be better for the country as well as for the immigrant. While great stretches of our farming lands are almost wholly undeveloped it is silly to talk of a possible overcrowding because of immigration, and it is just as silly to neglect the more important consideration of immigrant distribution. We are not now raising enough natural produce to support our own people, and until we are, there is room here for the immigrant. Many of the people who come here annually have worked on the farms of their respective countries, and if they received the right kind of encouragement they would much rather work on the farms here than shut themselves up in the uncivilized atmosphere of our city mills and factories.

Among the details of the federal plan are: the creation of distributing centers as provided by the labor department act, so that immigrants may be sent to country districts; the co-operation of the interior department in providing lands for wage earners who overcrowd the labor market; the aid of the agricultural department in a course of instruction in farming; and the general co-operation of the government in a farm credit system.

If the new plan is accepted and acted on favorably the distributing agencies will be established in large centers, and aliens on coming here would be sent under the care of immigrant agents, to the agency, from which they would be dispatched to the government land. There they would be taught the proper methods of farming by the agricultural department and under proper limitations the government would supply them with the capital necessary to make their efforts successful. By this means the waste stretches would be developed and food would be provided for millions of our people. Not the least important consideration is that under such a plan the labor market would be relieved from the depressing annual load of unskilled and low priced labor which keeps the status of the workman down while deteriorating the standard of manufacturing efficiency. The plan of the assistant secretary has much to recommend it.

JOSIAH QUINCY ON CURRENCY

One of the most complete analytical discussions of the pending currency bill that has come before the public is a recent article by Josiah Quincy of Boston who after dwelling on the salient points of the measure as it now stands and comparing it with the original form declares:

"A comparison of the text of the bill as it originally went before the house committee and as finally approved a week ago by the conference of democratic senators, shows very clearly that a great piece of constructive legislation has been studied, elaborated and perfected with great pains and intelligent care."

In this he echoes the sentiments of Senator Weeks, who said recently that while he still objected to some minor considerations of the pending measure, he considers it vastly superior to the system of national finance now in vogue. Mr. Quincy refers to this declaration by Senator Weeks and says concerning it:

"Opinions may still differ as to the merits of the bill in its present form, but as to the progress made in the conference between the two sections of the senate committee, and soon to be settled by vote of the senate. But the attitude of Senator Weeks in the light of his service upon the national monetary commission and of his successful experience as a practical banker, is enough to show that the original measure has been so far modified and perfected that the opposition which it encountered until recently has been very largely overcome, or at least neutralized."

What is more important to the future of the currency bill than the approval of the gentlemen above quoted is the apparent willingness of those heretofore opposed to the measure to abandon all manner of obstructive tactics and have it pass through the senate without unnecessary delay. The democratic supporters of the bill showed that they would not tolerate anything which would make it drag on indefinitely and the country is giving signs of understanding that some influences were at work against it in a decision to prevent hasty action. The present outlook for its speedy passage is hopeful, and there is a probability that it will become a law before Christmas.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

A MASTERLY LEADER

Lowell Sun: Over-legislation is the curse of democracy. There has been much crying of freedom of speech for his persistency in urging and insisting on pushing the tariff and the currency bill. He did right. He held his party to the task with a persistent mastery that is remarkable and admirable. It would be fortunate if the representatives and senators were each living up to the president's rule.

THE COST

Worcester Post: The report of Treasurer C. F. Ware, of the progressive state committee carries the amount expended in the third campaign up to $34,225; yet he says $10,163.25 of this was made at the expense of the meeting were never held. The outlay in the Gardner campaign, if the full facts are ever known, will doubtless be found to equal or exceed the Bird figures. The whole democratic expenditure was vastly less than that of either of the other parties and besides it was nearly all for the right and the only American way, from man helping instead of being hired in the work of citizenship.

SHOULD SAY SO

Brockton Enterprise: We have generally noticed that the average man is never so eloquent in denouncing the high cost of living as when he has one foot on the rail and his elbow on the bar—(Boston Transcript). Awful confession for a transcript, even if he got his information at first hand.

HITCH-HITCH

Fall River Globe: The senate has just passed in a sanction of the Hitch-Hitch grab, whereby a considerable portion of the national reservation at Yosemite park is to be practically ceded to the city of San Francisco for water supply purposes and much of the scenic beauty of that national wonderland despoiled and ruined. It is a shame that a nation that is signed by the president, San Francisco receives as a free gift from the national government not only one of the nicest pieces of real estate but a property that represents to that city the equivalent of $15,000,000.

PENCIL SUCKING

Johnston Democrat: These are dangerous times in which we live. Just as soon as one man kills is laid low another springs up. Children are revealed to be pitted. The latest danger that menaces the tiny state of New Hampshire is pencil sucking. Think of it! Most children are forbidden to suck an idea out of a pencil there would have been no idea. It appears that no sucking is a dirty habit, that it is a dangerous habit and that it must cease as an American institution.

THE FAILURES

Worcester Post: The Acadia fire in Boston was no less a terrible tragedy because the victims were men who have failed. They were human beings, entitled to their lives. The faults and official neglect that caused the disaster, were as disgraceful as if the destroyed men had been millionaires.

GIRL ARRESTED IN MURDER

North Adams Police Detail Her on Charge of Fugitive from Justice in Northboro

NORTH ADAMS, Dec. 10.—A young woman said to be Ida Harris was arrested yesterday in the city of Northboro, Cotton company's mill on Union street, by Patrolman Edward Cavanaugh on the charge of being a fugitive from justice in Vermont. Chief Dineen has notified the district attorney at Brattleboro and Sheriff Mann is on his way here to take her back to that town, where she will be charged with larceny.

Last May Ida Harris roomed at Brattleboro with Miss Florence Kuriger, where both worked in a mill. One day the Harris girl remained out of work, and when Miss Kuriger went to the room after work she found that $35 had disappeared from a box of medicine and several other valuable articles. Miss Kuriger traced the girl to many places and finally came here yesterday. Patrolman Cavanaugh learned that a girl, who was not named, had been taken away with a ring with a description to the Harris girl. She was identified at the police station by Miss Kuriger as Ida Harris. She refused to make any statement.

How To Prevent Acid Stomach And Food Fermentation

By a Stomach Specialist

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach troubles possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is acid in the stomach, usually due to an accumulation of food fermentation. Acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food ferments the stomach, thus causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. Stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases, it is necessary to remove 90 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking immediately after eating, a teaspoonful of blunted magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only reliable, active stomach and corrective food. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will be properly digesting the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the blunted magnesia, as I have found other formulas utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION

Senator Hoke Smith's Bill Providing for Co-operation With State College Approved by Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Unanimous approval was given by the senate committee on agriculture yesterday to the bill of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia for a system of agricultural extension work.

The measure would propose to unite the federal agricultural department and the state college in a plan for carrying information to the public. The original appropriation of $480,000, to be yearly increased until it amounts to nearly $3,500,000, is proposed. Provision is made for a director of co-operative agricultural extension work, to be appointed by the secretary of agriculture.

Plans for agricultural and vocational teaching and training will be taken up in separate bills.

The house committee on agriculture already has voted to report favorably an extension work bill introduced by Representative Lever of South Carolina.

The bill is printed on the tickets and charged at the box office. Owners and lessees of premises in which such sales should be made would be held equally liable with the principals in the sales. A penalty of not less than $50 and more than $200 or 30 days' imprisonment is provided.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—eyes dull—mouth—tasteless—no good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. WELCOME IS PLANNED

TO FAIRFAX HARRISON, PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 10.—Fairfax Harrison, the newly elected president of the Southern Railway company, to succeed the late William Wilson Finley, will pay Atlanta a visit shortly after Christmas on a tour of this section. Railway men are planning to give him a warm welcome. Mr. Harrison is a Virginian, his home being at Belvidere, Va. He is peculiarly identified with the south, as his father was private secretary to Jefferson Davis while president of the Confederate states, and all his railroad experience has been with the Southern and its associated lines. Mr. Harrison was born in 1860 and was graduated from Yale, with the A. B. degree in 1880, and from Columbia, with the A. M. degree in 1891. He was admitted to the bar in New York in 1892 and continued the practice of law in this city until 1895, when he entered the service of the Southern railway in the legal department as solicitor. In 1902 he was made assistant to the president and in 1906 became vice-president, which position he held until 1910, when he resigned on being elected president of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville.

TO THE HIGHEST COURT

How Thaw Case Can Be Carried to United States Supreme Tribunal on an Appeal

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Judge Aldrich's statement yesterday that he would not pass upon the constitutional questions involved in the Thaw case, but would forward them to the supreme court of the United States, was not taken in supreme court circles as meaning that the case would come to the highest court without at least the form of a decision by Judge Aldrich on the pending habeas corpus application. Only the federal circuit courts of appeal, it was pointed out, may certify questions of law to the supreme court for answer, before they have acted themselves, and this can be done only in cases where the decisions of the circuit courts of appeal are final.

The only way in which the Thaw case may come from the district court to the supreme court is said to be by appeal from a decision by Judge Aldrich. In several cases in recent years, however, where the district judges have considered the cases before them of such importance that the supreme court would be asked to review, they have not considered at length and passed upon the intricate points raised, but have promptly handed down decisions from which appeals might be taken, regarding any efforts they might make as labor lost.

FRIEND OF THE MILITIA

Gov.-elect Walsh Tells Battery A He Will Do All He Can for the State Soldiers

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Gov.-elect David C. Walsh declared his warm friendship for the state militia and promised it every assistance during his administration. In a brief address at the annual dinner of Battery A, 1st battalion, at the Exchange club last evening, Mr. Walsh was a guest of the battery, and in his address was warm in praise of the company, which he said he considered one of the best in the state and one of the organizations upon which the war department can well depend in its new mobilization.

Gen. D. Parker, formerly a captain of the battery, also spoke. Capt. Hale was toastmaster and other guests were Capt. R. F. Blake, Capt. Howard Lawrence, Maj. C. D. Burgett, Gen. W. D. Emery, Maj. J. JOHN DOE INQUIRY

Man Who Said He Gave $500 Check for Campaign Subpoenaed

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—D. E. Van Wirt, a contractor of Hudson Falls, N. Y., was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury today to repeat his testimony at the John Doe inquiry yesterday that he had given a check for $500 in May last to George M. Palmer, chairman of the democratic state committee as a contribution from Van Wirt's firm, a corporation.

It is against the law for a corporation to give a political contribution and District Attorney Whitman seeks Palmer's indictment for a misdemeanor. Arthur McLean, treasurer of the democratic state committee was indicted under similar circumstances last week, the fourth man to be indicted since the start of the inquiry.

According to testimony taken thus far about $25,000 was contributed by contractors to democratic campaign funds and not reported. Mr. Whitman said today that he expected to uncover $200,000 before he was through.

Before taking up the Palmer matter today it was expected that the grand jury would resume consideration of the case of Thomas Hassett, formerly of the state engineer's office accused of accepting $1000 from a contractor to expedite a payment for state work. The district attorney will then plunge into one of the most important phases of the investigation yet brought to light, the testimony of John W. Murphy, a dealer in paving materials, that he split a $11,000 commission with James J. Gaffney, state assessor, of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, and Joseph D. Carroll, former Tammany treasurer in return for their influence with state officials. Carroll is dead. Gaffney is the man over whom William Sulzer said he and Charles F. Murphy split because Sulzer would not appoint Gaffney commissioner of highways.

As president of the Boston National League baseball club, Gaffney is at present attending the league meeting here. When asked about Murphy's testimony, he smiled. "I will say," he said, "that the Boston Nationals will positively beat the Glens in next year."

Reversal of Judgment in Forged Cotton Bills of Lading in Effect Quashes Litigation for $4,500,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Litigation involving about $4,500,000 in connection with alleged forged cotton bills of lading was practically quashed yesterday by a decision of the United States circuit court of appeals, reversing the judgment for $7230 directed by United States District Judge George C. Holt in favor of A. Hannay & Co., cotton merchants of Liverpool.

The action was the first of a series of test suits brought to fix liability upon New York banking houses, which discounted the bills for Knight, Yancy & Co. of Decatur, Ala., and Steele, Miller & Co. of Corinth, Miss. The judgment set aside was against the Guaranty Trust company.

The reversal decision was the first of importance written by Judge Henry Wood Rogers, until recently dean of the Yale law school. The court held that the transactions involved took place in England and hence the laws of that country must determine the liabilities.

CALL HALT IN SEARCH

Lopez Hunt Stopped Down to a Walk "Old Murderer Comes Out of Mine or Is Starved"

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 10.—Although miners worked today without fear of harm in parts of the Utah-Apex mine shaft or deputy since Monday has penetrated the tunnels in search of Ralph Lopez, slayer of six men.

In council yesterday the sheriffs decided not to allow the deputies to re-enter the mine or to attempt further smuggling. Their plan is merely to keep guard at the exits until Lopez is starved or until no doubt remains that he is dead or has escaped.

The tunnel mouths, except those in the lowest levels, where miners are at work, have been stopped with bulkheads, which will allow a reduction in the number of guards at these points.

On Nov. 21 Lopez killed a fellow Mexican and three peace officers and set a chase through the mountains, took refuge on Nov. 27 in the mine, where he killed two more of his pursuers.

Chicago Board Submits to Objections to Special Examiner's Report That It Fixes the Charges

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Attorneys for the Chicago egg and butter board appeal a decision by Judge Aldrich yesterday to set forth their objections to Morrison's report that the board has fixed prices in violation of the anti-trust law.

The butter and egg board submitted 12 objections to the report. In substance they asserted that no matter what action the board took it did not fix the price of butter and eggs in the open market.

It was stated that Judge Landis, on Thursday, will fix the court for trial in the case in the federal court.

NEW HAVEN DIRECTORS

TO DECIDE TODAY WHETHER ROAD WILL CONTINUE DIVIDENDS ON STOCK

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Whether the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad was to continue dividends on its stock at the present rate of six per cent, reduce its rate or pass dividend payment was to be decided today at a meeting in this city of the board of directors. The commonest guess was that the rate would be cut to four per cent, but there was no authoritative information on the subject. The best indications of the board's probable action were the tremendous shrinkage in New Haven's earnings and recent intimations of Chairman Elliott that it might be necessary to reduce disbursements on the stock. Statisticians figured that New Haven now carries only about three per cent on its stock, the estimate being based on the report issued this week for October and the first four months of the fiscal year. The October report showed a decline of $583,000 in net corporate income. The surplus for the month was only $160,000 as against $1,043,000 in October of 1912. A member of the stockholders' protective committee expressed the belief yesterday that the dividend should be omitted and largely on the strength of this statement the stock was depressed violently on the stock exchange. It fell nearly five points to 7 1/2, the lowest price at which the stock ever sold.

For years New Haven paid eight per cent annually.

BAY STATE CITY ELECTIONS

Scanlon Wins Out in Lawrence—License in Lynn and Worcester
—Newburyport Goes No—Jack
Geraghty Wins in Woburn—
Other Results

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Two of the 14 Massachusetts cities which held elections yesterday changed their attitude on the license question.

Lynn broke a drought of six years by voting in favor of license; Newburyport returned to the no-license fold after a year in which liquor was legally sold by reason of scant margins of three votes, declared for license last year.

Worcester, several years ago the largest no-license city in the world, added further to the increasing majority there in favor of license.

Only one of the mayors who came up for re-election was refused. This was Mayor James E. O'Donnell of Lowell, who was defeated by Dennis J. Murphy. Mayor Michael A. Scanlon of Lawrence was apparently returned by a margin of 182 votes, which was doubted by his opponent, ex-Mayor White, on whose request a recount will be held today. Ex-Mayor White's re-entry into politics was made after serving a jail sentence for conspiracy, and this lent interest to the Lawrence election.

National party lines were largely lost in the cities in which elections were held, many being under commission forms of government. As a result indications of republican, democratic or progressive success or failure were lacking in most cases.

Republicans suffered a defeat in Newton, where Edwin O. Childs, Jr., running as an independent with democratic backing, although a republican in national politics, was successful in defeating the republican candidate, Alton Durr. It was the first time such an overturn has occurred in Newton in 21 years.

A republican gain was recorded in Worcester, where Mayor George M. Wright was re-elected by the largest plurality ever recorded a candidate for mayor in that city.

sought to bring out a big vote favoring license.

Early returns showed the license vote to be on the increase, and when the final count was made the city had again registered its approval of license, although by such a small margin, that those opposing the issue believe that a recount will mean a small no-license majority.

The office of commissioner of water supply was won by Thomas Campbell, 2d, over George N. Nichols, the vote being 4451 to 6508. George Cornell defeated Dennis Duceen for the office of commissioner of public property by a vote of 4462 to 6525, while Dr. Nathaniel Breed and Mrs. Myra D. Ruppel were the successful candidates for the school committee.

JACK GERAGHTY ELECTED

Woburn Sends Husband of Former Julia French to Board of Aldermen—City Continues No-License

WOBURN, Dec. 10.—"Handsome Jack" Geraghty, who married Julia French and who is thereby related by marriage to half the wealthy families of New York city, was elected to the board of aldermen of this city yesterday.

He is an automobile dealer, and the principal plank of his platform was better roads. Mrs. Geraghty, during the campaign, was very active on his behalf, and it is said her influence was responsible for many votes, as she is a comparatively new-comer in Woburn.

Mayor William H. Henchey, democrat, was re-elected over John W. Fox, republican, by a vote of 2005 to 861. For member of the board of public works James H. Kelley, democrat, was elected over Walter B. Merchant, republican. The vote was 1534 to 1268. The city will continue to be no-license. The vote was: No, 1542; yes, 1226. The democrats will control the board of aldermen.

JOHN ORDINANCE

Defeated at Melrose—Mayor Oliver B. Munroe Was Re-elected—"Pony Express" License Lost

MELROSE, Dec. 10.—Melrose yesterday re-elected Mayor Oliver B. Munroe and voted against a proposal to govern the keeping of buses by ordinance, a matter which aroused much discussion during the campaign.

Mayor Munroe succeeds himself after a contest with former-Mayor Charles E. French, which brought out a vote larger than that of last year. The count showed: Munroe 1590 votes; French 993.

No-license followers added somewhat to the margin in opposition to the sale of liquor. The vote was: Yes, 430; no, 2101. Last year it stood: Yes, 476; no, 1951. A proposal to license "pony express" was defeated, 1188 to 390.

CHANGE GOVERNMENT

Attleboro Citizens Vote in Favor of Commission Form—Three Plans on the Ballot

ATTLEBORO, Dec. 10.—The first steps toward changing the town's form of government were taken yesterday when the townsmen voted 1760 to 226 in favor of the change. Of three plans submitted that for a commission form of government received 439 votes, a city manager plan received 324 and a plan for a mayor and city council received 197. Attleboro has a population of 15,000.

HARRIET WON

Defeated Abbott For School Board at Medford in Exciting Contest—City Voted No Again

MEDFORD, Dec. 10.—A contest for school committee in which Edward W. Barrett defeated Ernest W. Abbott was the only exciting feature of the city election yesterday. The city voted as usual on the license question, 2104 against license, and 836 in favor. The vote last year was yes 843; no, 2188.

MAIDEN STAYS DRY

Mayor Schumaker Was Re-elected by a Vote of 2548 to 2450—Defeated O. P. Duceen

MAIDEN, Dec. 10.—Mayor Charles Schumaker was re-elected yesterday defeating Owen P. Duceen by a vote of 2548 to 2450. The city again registered its opposition to license by 4037 to 1770. The vote last year was yes, 1710; no, 5210.

MAJOR CHAMBERS WINS

Re-elected to a Third Term in Everett—Veteran School Committee Member Re-elected

EVERETT, Dec. 10.—Mayor James Chambers was re-elected to a third term yesterday without having made any campaign. He received 2241 votes to 1025 for his opponent, James M. Theobald. The latter has never previously been prominent in local politics but made a vigorous speaking campaign. The large vote was unexpected.

As usual, the city voted against license, by 2538 to 1062. The vote last year was yes, 1044; no, 5518.

Alfred W. Lewis, the oldest school commissioner in active service in Massachusetts was re-elected.

CHelsea STAYS "WET"

Mayor Wilbur Re-elected—Excellent Contests Over Members of Board of Aldermen

CHELSEA, Dec. 10.—Mayor Edward E. Wilbur of Chelsea was re-elected yesterday, defeating his opponent, Alfred L. May, by 1109 votes. The vote was Wilbur 2247; May, 1547. The aldermen elected at large were William J. Williams, present member of the board of aldermen, and Marcus M. Merrill, who was a member of the board in 1911.

Those elected by wards are Alderman Hugh M. McLaughlin from ward 1, defeating former Alderman James J. Kane; Harry Cohen in ward 2, defeating present Alderman William E. Morge.

In ward 3 former Alderman David White defeated the present Alderman James J. Shannon, who sought re-election; in Ward 4 Richard A. Vok defeated George W. Chiklen by five votes, and in ward 5 Alexander Leslie easily defeated his opponent, William A. Reed, Jr., the latter also being defeated for the legislature on the progressive ticket at the state election.

The license advocates got a big scare, but carried the city by a majority of 604 votes, their majority being cut from last year's vote, when they carried the city by 1070. The vote yesterday was 2535, no 1011. Too much activity in the state election is the cause assigned for the reduction in the vote for license.

The surprise in the result was the defeat of Alderman William A. O'Brien, present president of the aldermen, and the defeat of Alderman James J. Shannon in ward 3. In the all-large contest there were four candidates—Alderman O'Brien and Williams, who were opposed by William A. Levy and former Alderman Marcus M. Merrill. Williams and Merrill were the winners.

"NO" IN NEWBURYPORT

City Switches Back From Last Year's License Vote—Mayor Landford Re-elected

NEWBURYPORT, Dec. 10.—A majority of three votes in favor of license last year was changed to a margin of 276 against license in the city election yesterday.

Mayor Hiram H. Landford was re-elected by a plurality of 421 in a three-cornered contest. The vote for mayor gave Landford 1366; Arthur Withington, 912; Norman Russell, 905. No party designations were used.

Activity by the Civic League in favor of a no-license regime stirred up interest in this issue, and the total vote was one of the largest in years. It developed 1436 in favor of license, and 1712 opposed; as against 1525 who favored license last year, and 1923 who voted no.

CHANGE IN NEWTON

Edwin O. Childs, Jr., First Mayor Other Than Republican to Be Elected in 21 Years

NEWTON, Dec. 10.—A man other than the regular republican candidate was elected mayor of Newton yesterday for the first time in 21 years, Edwin O. Childs, Jr., winning from Alton Durr by a majority of 180 votes. Childs ran as an independent, with democratic support, although a republican in national politics. Burr was accorded no nominations of both the republican and progressive parties. The vote was: Childs 2778, Burr 2553.

Republicans won each of five aldermanic contests, retaining their 13 members in the city government, as against one progressive and two democratic members.

Former proportions of 3 to 1 were maintained in the vote against license, which stood: Yes, 1179; no, 3985. Last year the vote was Yes, 988; no, 3111.

YES IN CHICOPPEE

License by Increased Majority—Mayor Rivers, Independent, Was Re-elected

CHICOPPEE, Dec. 10.—Mayor Frank A. Rivers, independent, was re-elected yesterday by a majority of 541 over Houltham, democrat.

License prevailed again, the vote being: Yes, 1782; no, 1058. The vote in 1912 was: Yes, 1756; no, 1102.

SALEM DRY AGAIN

Gifford and Lally Elected as Commissioners After an Exciting Contest—Lobby Suit Fought in Election

SALEM, Dec. 10.—Lacking a contest for Mayor John J. Hurley holding over for two more years, the success of the no-license advocates was an interesting feature of the election here. The city went dry for the fifth time in as many years. The majority was 578.

A contest for two commissionships in the city government furnished excitement. The incumbents were both up for re-election, but, while Wallace L. Gifford, commissioner of public property, was successful, William H. Colbert, commissioner of public health, was not. Thomas J. Lally won the second place. Lally was the object of a suit for libel brought jointly by Commissioners Gifford and Colbert as a result of statements alleged to have been made by him on the platform and in pamphlets during the campaign.

The vote on the license question was: Yes, 3013, no 3621, as compared with last year's vote of yes 3021 no 4057.

WORCESTER "WET"

Sins in License Column by Decreased Vote—Mayor Wright, Republican, Re-elected

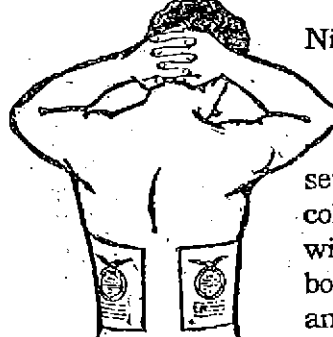

WORCESTER, Dec. 10.—The republican swept Worcester in the municipal election yesterday and by an overwhelming vote the city stayed in the wet column, where it has been for the last four years.

Mayor George M. Wright, republican, was re-elected, receiving 13,082 votes. Dr. Thomas J. Barrett, democrat, received 7245 votes and John W. Armon, progressive, received 747 votes. The license vote was: Yes, 12,655; no, 1308. Last year the license vote was: Yes, 13,105; no, 8107.

The board of aldermen elected stands: Republicans, 8; democrats, 3. The city council elected stands: Republicans, 12; democrats, 4.

CHARITY DEPARTMENT GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

Supt. Dowd Calls for $10,000 Of the Telephone and Telegraph Lines Throughout the Country Being Considered by Wilson

Michael J. Dowd, superintendent of the charity department has sent a communication to the mayor, who is also commissioner of public safety, and under whose control is the charity department, a communication to the effect that the sum of $10,000 will be necessary to carry on the work of the charity department for the balance of the year, and accordingly the mayor framed an order for the borrowing of $10,000. The order was read at this morning's meeting and was adopted. The communication received by His Honor is as follows:

Hon. James E. O'Donnell, Mayor, Commissioner of Public Safety, Dear Sir: I have the honor to inform you that an additional appropriation of $10,000, divided as follows: $500 to the Cambridge Street hospital, and $4500 to the outdoor relief, will be necessary to carry on the work of the charity department for the balance of the year.

The municipal council voted an appropriation of $5000 for the hospital when making up the annual appropriations. The actual expenses of the hospital for the last three years have been as follows: 1910, $38,212.45; 1911, $41,173.38; 1912, $52,753.01. Average expenses for three years, $44,046.28. This year the prices of necessities of life have advanced to the highest mark and it has been impossible to keep within the appropriation. The advance in meats alone is almost sufficient to account for the difference. In the cost of minkedling the hospital, in 1910, beef cost 10 cents and 1/2 cents per pound. In 1911, they cost 11 cents, 7/8 and 1/2 cents. In 1912, for January and February, the price was 7 1/2 cents per pound, and from March to September 8 cents per pound. From September to January, 1913, the price was 9 1/2 to 10 cents per pound.

This year the price was 9 1/2 to 10 cents per pound from January to April. In April the price was so high that the purchasing agent did not make a contract, but bought on the market prices as follows: 9 1/2, 9 3/4, 10, 10 1/2, 10 3/4 and 11 cents per pound.

The most of the purchases were at 10 1/2 to 11 cents per pound. As we use about 1500 pounds of beef four per week, an advance of only two cents per pound means an added expense of $30 per week, or $1500 per year. The price of minkedling was 4 cents and 10 cents per pound in 1912. In 1913 the price was 12 cents per pound. We use about 1200 pounds of minkedling per month. At an average increase of four cents per pound—this means an increase of $28 per month, or $336 per year. All other meats, fish, coffee, tea, butter, butterings, eggs, etc., brought increased prices this year. Add to this the fact that we had an average of about 20 inmates home this summer than in 1912 and you will readily understand that expenses could not possibly be kept within the appropriation.

The ordinary expenses of the outdoor relief would be met by the appropriation thereof, but the legislature, in its wisdom, passed a law this year requiring cities and towns to aid mothers with dependent children, to bring up such children properly in their own homes. Under this act we are now aiding 94 mothers and 200 children, and this number will undoubtedly be increased. The aid varies from $5 a month to $10 a month, according to the needs of the family. For October the expense under this law was $1000, for November it will exceed $1100. For December the expense will be higher than in November, as applications are constantly coming in.

This law, while very expensive

to the city and state, undoubtedly will do a very great deal of good and will enable many tired, worn-out mothers to obtain a much-needed rest, and will give to the children the best gift they could have—a mother's undivided care and attention.

Yours very respectfully,
M. J. Dowd,
Superintendent of Charity Dept.

Major O'Donnell Cheerful

Mayor James E. O'Donnell, who was defeated for reelection as chief magistrate of this city, is a cheerful loser. He seemed very happy this forenoon when he presided over the meeting of the council, and at the close of the meeting he gave the newspaper men an interview. He attributes his defeat to the fact that the Franco-American vote went to his opponent, and when he was asked if the story that was circulated about town that he had discharged John Powers, an employee of the health department for the reason that Powers was alleged to have been exposed to the mayor's election, he replied:

"In my two years of service in this city government I have never discharged or threatened to discharge any employee of any department under my control, nor have I ever asked any subordinate to favor my candidacy. As a matter of fact Mr. Powers is still in the employ of the health department."

His Honor has received an invitation to attend a reception which will be tendered by Rev. William Lawrence, D. D., bishop of the Massachusetts Episcopalians on December 18 at Colonial hall. The affair will be to commemorate the anniversary of the consecration of the bishop and is in the hands of a committee consisting of representatives of this city. The invitation was sent by Rev. Appleton Granville, pastor of St. Anne's church.

RUNS OVER CHILD

Unknown Man Then Drives Horse Away at Fast Clip in Haverhill—Girl Seriously Injured

HAVERHILL, Dec. 10.—Delores Donahue, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donahue, is in a critical condition at the home of her parents on Locust street from concussion of the brain, which she sustained when run over by a horse and carriage on Winter street, near Duncan street, yesterday afternoon.

The little girl, with her mother, had been out visiting during the afternoon and just before 5 o'clock they were returning home. Reaching Hale street Mrs. Donahue and her daughter started to cross Winter street to meet Mr. Donahue, who is employed in a shoe factory.

As they were in the middle of the street a horse and light carriage, driven by an unknown man, came along at a fast clip and the girl was knocked down by the horse, trampled upon and the wheels passed over her head.

The driver of the outfit did not stop, but, whirling on his horse, drove rapidly away without waiting to ascertain the extent of the injuries of the girl.

Mrs. Donahue picked up her daughter and she was hurried home, suffering intense pain, from which she became delirious. A physician found no bones broken, but that the girl was suffering from concussion of the brain. She may also be hurt internally.

TRUST LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—President Wilson's trust legislation was discussed at a conference at the White House today between Chairman Clayton of the house judiciary committee and several of its members. The committee already has begun hearings on several of its bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Government ownership of telegraph and telephone lines throughout the country is being seriously considered by President Wilson. Conferences between the president and Postmaster General Burleson have led to a gathering of information as to the practical working of government ownership in those countries where such a system is in operation. The subject will be discussed at some length in the postmaster general's annual report soon to be made public. The postmaster general said the president for a few minutes today and while they did not discuss the subject, Mr. Burleson said that as he left the White House on previous occasions when he had discussed the question with the president he had found his mind open and receptive to information. Though bills have been drafted by members of congress looking to government ownership they have not been agreed on as an administrative measure while the result of Mr. Burleson's investigations are being investigated. "There is no doubt," said Mr. Burleson, "that the inauguration of the parcel post and the postal savings system has given a tremendous impetus to the desire of people all over the country to have the government become the means of communication everywhere. It is a subject involving two or three hundred million dollars and we must go very slowly in launching into it. Every great nation except us has adopted it. I don't want to make any recommendations to congress until I am absolutely sure of my ground."

DR. F. G. GULLILAND

Chosen Head of the Lowell Dental Association Last Evening—Banquet and Speeches

The members of the Lowell Dental society held their annual meeting last night and elected officers for the ensuing year. The affair which was largely attended was held at Page's banquet room and was presided by a dainty luncheon.

The guests assembled around the festive board at 8 o'clock and partook of a dainty dinner and at the close of the repast a business meeting was held in the course of which the election of officers was held with the following result: Dr. F. G. Gulliland, president; Dr. N. S. Phillips, vice president; Dr. G. W. Bonnerville, secretary; Dr. W. H. Pepin, treasurer; Dr. H. L. Darling, librarian.

Speeches were then in order and the principal address was delivered by Dr. J. J. Edmunds of Boston, who spoke on "Ophtholmia." Dr. A. S. McLeod presided, and the following three new members were elected: Dr. J. J. McGeevy, Dr. E. S. Merrill and Dr. J. W. Janzen.

NEW REMEDY SAVES OLD FOLKS FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weakness, Backache, Stiff Joints, Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Dozes Are Taken

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can easily avoid the tortures of backache and rheumatism, and be saved the annoyance of getting up at night with disagreeable bladder disorders.

Croquine promptly overcomes all such troubles by making the kidneys filter the blood properly and sift out the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up, inactive kidneys, dissolves out the uric acid and other poisonous impurities that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause rheumatism. It neutralizes the urine so it no longer irritates the bladder, overcoming unnecessary breaking of sleep and helps the kidneys and bladder regain health and strength.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what else you have used. It is practically impossible to take this quick-acting, effective preparation without immediate results. It starts to work the minute you take it—the first time you use it. An original package of Croquine costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

Warm Rooms

Do you have them? The bath room the first thing in the morning, the kitchen and all others. Buy a "Perfection Oil Heater" and any room can be made comfortable in no time; it will warm up the cold corners, keep the old folks comfortable and you too. Odorless, easy to take care of and the cost to run is practically nothing.

RECOUNT IN LAWRENCE

REQUESTED BY EX-MAYOR WHITE, WHO WAS DEFEATED BY 152 VOTES BY MAYOR SCANLON

LAWRENCE, Dec. 10.—The recount of the votes cast for mayor in yesterday's city election requested by ex-Mayor William White, who was defeated by 152 votes by Mayor Michael A. Scanlon will be held at city hall tomorrow.

Pending the recount the ballot boxes are being guarded by two police officers.

ATTACKED EDITOR

Rep. Giblin Pleaded Guilty in Superior Court Today

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A plea of guilty of assault on James E. McGuire, a newspaper editor, was entered in the superior court today by Representative Thomas J. Giblin of East Boston, who had appealed from his conviction and jail sentence of two months imposed by the municipal court. Chief Justice Allen will sentence Giblin later. The assault on McGuire was the outgrowth of a political disagreement.

WAS FOUND DEAD IN BOSTON LODGING HOUSE TODAY—COM-PANION CRITICALLY ILL

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Dominico Grotto was found dead from gas poisoning in a North End lodging house today. His companion, Gregorio Sario, was in a critical condition. It is believed that the gas was improperly turned off when the men retired last night.

EXCITED BY TWO-CENT FIRE

Apparatus and Crowd Rush to Old South Corner, But Motorman Put in New Fuse and Goes His Way

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—A large force of fire apparatus and nearly 100 firemen responded to an alarm from Washington and Mills streets shortly before 7 o'clock last night for a fire that caused a damage estimated at two cents. A crowd quickly gathered and a detail of policemen from the Court square station had a busy five minutes getting the traffic tangle straightened out.

The excitement started when a fuse on an outward bound Roxbury Crossing car blew out with a loud noise and a little flame and smoke. An excited man sent in an alarm at once.

When District Chief Fox and Engine 4 and Chemical 1 arrived the fire apparatus to reach the scene. Motorman Thomas Concomon was just finishing the insertion of a new fuse. Without waiting to give the firemen and police any information as to the fire, the car crew started on toward Roxbury Crossing.

CONDEMNED DITATION WINES

BERLIN, Dec. 10.—The Catholic clergy and the German government joined forces today in condemning imitation wines. The Catholic bishop of Wurzburg issued an edict to the clergy of his diocese warning them against the use of "cheap and most deceptive substitutes for wine" in the communion, and at the same time the government announced it was about to assist the winegrowers in making restrictive regulations concerning so-called temperance drinks.

BAY STATE QUOR TRAFFIC

Scanlon W 2000 Anti-Saloon Men Licenses Women Storm Capitol and —New England National Prohibition
Ge

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Under the leadership of the Anti-Saloon League, a group of men and women representing the Anti-Saloon League of America and the Women's Christian Temperance Union assembled today for a demonstration against the liquor traffic. In two phalanxes, the men and women marched from the downtown streets of the city to the east front of the capitol. Each bore petitions demanding national prohibition by constitutional amendment. On the steps of the capitol the petitions were received by Representative Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, author of such a proposed amendment and by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas. The legislators also received from a special committee of the anti-liquor forces a copy of another resolution suggested to forever prohibit the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors except for sacramental and medicinal purposes. In their march to the capitol the Anti-Saloon League forces were led by Brig.-Gen. A. S. Daggett, Mrs. Lillian N. Stevens of Maine, president-general of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, marshalled the women who waved banners as they paraded down Pennsylvania Avenue. Following the presentation of petitions, which were filed in the senate and house, prohibition speeches were made. On the speakers' program were Ernest H. Cherrington of Westville, O., former Gov. M. H. Patterson of Tennessee, Miss Ella Boule of Brooklyn, president of the New York state W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Mary Harris Armour of Georgia.

PROSECUTIONS DROPPED

Last of Indictments Growing Out of Austin Dam Disaster in 1911 Not Prosecuted

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 10.—The last of the criminal prosecutions against officers of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company of Austin, Pa., growing out of a flood which devastated Austin, Sept. 30, 1911, destroying 80 lives and $3,000,000 in property, were not prosecuted at Coudersport yesterday. Private prosecutors presented petitions requesting the step on the ground that they believed there could be no conviction of the defendants for voluntary manslaughter under the facts in the case. Settlements of the civil actions for damages against the company opened the way for securing the consent of the private prosecutors to drop the criminal cases. Miner's Interest, Lincoln, Thurs. eve. THE KIEV MURDER

Time Limit for an Appeal Against Verdict
Expired Today

KIEV, Russia, Dec. 10.—The time limit expired today for an appeal against the verdict of acquittal in the recent sensational trial of Mendel Belits on the charge of murdering Andrew Yushinsky for purposes of blood ritual. The law allows a period of 15 days in which to appeal after the promulgation of the verdict and as the public prosecutor did not take advantage of this the judgment became absolute automatically.

CHILD LABOR LAW

Vigorous Enforcement at Pittsburgh — Girls
Sent Home

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—Vigorous enforcement of the child labor law enacted by the late legislature was continued throughout the city today. Proprietors of restaurants, hotels, clubs and department stores were notified by representatives of the bureau of state factory inspection that all women under 21 years must cease work at 5 o'clock at night and the provisions relating to boys must be followed closely. Two merchants were arrested and fined last night. All girls within the age limit were sent home from the theatres where they were employed. Factories have been observing the law for several months.

MRS. DIGNOWITY WEDS

WOMAN WHO ELOPED WITH RICHEST STUDENT IN HARVARD AND LATER DIVORCED, MARRIES

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—Mrs. James V. Dignowity, Jr., whose elopement with young Dignowity, then known as the richest student in Harvard university, created a sensation in Greater Boston seven years ago, is now Mrs. John E. McCanna. The facts of the wedding, which took place in a private suite at the Hotel Somerset on the afternoon of Oct. 8 last without even the clerks in the hotel knowing of it, became known yesterday. A few of the immediate relatives of the young couple were present, the ceremony being performed by Robert M. McLeish of 394 K street, South Boston, justice of the peace. Mrs. Dignowity and McCanna had been fast friends for a number of years. It had been reported on several occasions that they either were married or were about to be. Every time these rumors reached the ears of the young couple they denied them emphatically. Since the marriage Mr. and Mrs. McCanna have been living in a handsomely appointed apartment at 2 Hammond terrace, Allston. The marriage return filed at the Boston registry contains these facts: John E. McCanna, 23, single, of 1428 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, real estate broker born in Boston and son of Edward F. and Catherine Maguire McCanna, was married at Boston on Oct. 8, 1913, to Marion W. Dignowity, nee Whittemore, divorced, of Brookline, no occupation, born in Cambridge and daughter of Mr. John St. C. Whittemore and Fannie Burne-Whittemore.

"FOR GOD'S SAKE QUIT"

BUTTE, MONT., JUDGE APPEALS TO WOMEN IN COURT FOR DISTURBING
THE PEACE

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 10.—"For God's sake, women, quit your fighting and go back to your needle and try to get like living sisters," Police Judge Bocher told several women suffragists who were on trial before him charged with disturbing the peace when two factions clashed in an assembly hall and the police were called in. The women engaged in a hand to hand contest over the possession of the gavel. Judge Bocher dismissed the case, telling the defendants it would be useless to sue any group to the community were concerned to find them and that he was "thunderstruck that education and refined women of Butte cannot meet in social sessions without fist fighting."

SUIT AGAINST R. R. DIRECTORS
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 10.—Judge Walter Sanborn of the United States circuit court is expected to decide within a few days, possibly today, whether he will grant William H. Sales of New York permission to file a retraction suit against present and former directors of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad. Mr. Sales made application yesterday to file such a suit, claiming that certain present and former directors were responsible to the stockholders for losses incurred by the sale to the "Frisco" of feeder lines which they had promised.

WILLS BUILT TO SON
Sec. Redfield's Mother Leaves Homestead in Pittsfield to Three of Her Daughters

ST. PAUL, Dec. 10.—After leaving her homestead in Pittsfield, Mass., to three of her daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Redfield willed her little "the gift of my husband, and the land on which it rests," to her son, William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce. The will was probated here yesterday owing to the fact that Mrs. Redfield possessed local real estate. The estate is valued at $128,000. Mary W. Redfield was made administratrix without bond.

SAFETY LAWS IMPERATIVE

Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce Addresses Steamboat Men

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce, speaking last night at the annual banquet of the Association of Passenger Steamboat Lines, said that the moving interests, both on the deep sea and in interior waters, must more and more adjust themselves to the improved industrial conditions existing and to exist on land. He added that both the steamboat companies and the traveling public must have confidence in the government steamboat inspection service and that the department must insist firmly on obedience to all laws relating to safety of passengers. Capt. George A. White, president of the association; T. F. Newman and D. C. McIntyre of Cleveland also spoke. Capt. White spoke on the "Necessity of the Seamen's Union Bill" which has passed the senate and is now before the house committee. He declared that if it passed it would put a majority of the companies in the association entirely out of business.

A Novel Free Holiday Spectacle

On the Second Floor of Our Main Store
Representing a Christmas Fair

In Old Nuremberg

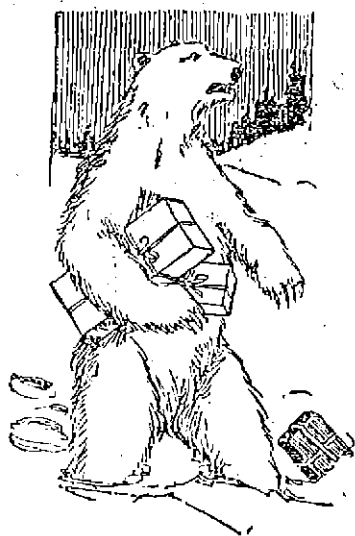

Nothing Like This Ever in New England

One of the most beautiful and interesting Christmas spectacles ever shown in Boston is the real German Christmas Village Costume Fair in Old Nuremberg which has been transported to a portion of the second floor in our Main Store.

Once inside the gates of Old Nuremberg you will imagine yourself in some quaint old German village of the eighteenth century. There are the ancient buildings, the open village square where the fair is in progress. There, too, are the village maidens, in their odd looking Nuremberg peasant costumes, ready to serve you and tell you all about the hundreds of attractions at their fair. Do not fail to see Old Nuremberg—it is entirely free.

The Greatest Feature of This Christmas Fair The Six Performing Polar Bear Brothers

BIG BROTHER BEAR

The great feature of the Fair in Old Nuremberg, the chief show of all the shows at the fair, is given by the six performing

who have brought down their wonderful Shop of Christmas Prize Package Toys direct from the North Pole. These are not real live Polar Bears, you know, but you will almost believe they are alive when you see them.

No child need be afraid of the Polar Bear Brothers! They love little children, and now let us tell you exactly what they do.

Mystery Packages for 25c.

Each boy or girl who visits Old Nuremberg on the Second Floor of the Main Store has the right to buy a Prize Package Toy for 25 cents from the Polar Bears.

Big Bear Takes the Money

First he hands his quarter to the Big Brother Bear, and this sets the mechanism in motion. Big Brother Bear waves a signal to the Little Brother Bear, who waves up near the big iceberg. The mysterious prize package drops out of a cave in the iceberg into a tray held by the first Polar Bear, who passes it to the next Bear and he in turn to another Bear—and so it comes down the line from the Northland to the last Big Brother Bear, who gives it to the boy or girl who paid for it.

Both Boys and Girls

No indeed, you don't know what you are going to get until you open it—that's the best part of the fun. But you are sure to get a fine 25c. toy—well worth the price—for a Girl, if a Girl buys it, and if a Boy gives the quarter, then it will be a Toy for a Boy. You will see what good judgment the Polar Bear Brothers use in their selection of these prize toys for Boys and Girls!

How to see the Polar Bears

The only way to see the Six Polar Bear Brothers is to visit the Fair in Old Nuremberg Village. The only entrance to Old Nuremberg is from the Second Floor of the Main Store, in the section formerly occupied by the untrimmed millinery, which has been moved over with the trimmed millinery till after Christmas.

Christmas Gifts at the Fair

Of course, there is no end of Christmas merchandise at The Fair in Old Nuremberg—that's what a Christmas Fair is for, isn't it? The saleswomen and girls are all dressed in the picturesque costumes of Old Nuremberg.

A PRETTY NUREMBERG GIRL

Among the things sold at the Fair are:

Jewelry	Books
Baskets	China
Aprons	Slippers
Girdles	Games
Handkerchiefs	Cut Glass
Musical Instrument Toys
Novel Mechanical Toys
Dainty Gifts for Baby
Tom Smith Stockings (filled)

Largest Toy Store in Boston

Remember, The Christmas Fair at Old Nuremberg is separate and distinct from our Big Toy Store. It's an entirely different show, in a different building. Old Nuremberg is in the Main Store on the Second Floor.

The Big Toy Store, the largest Toy Store in New England, is in the New Building on the Third Floor. There you will find the real live Santa Claus, the Doll that Swims, the Leaping Tiger, the big Doll Houses and thousands of other toys.
